ADIOS

The silvery moon has risen,
The air is cold and still,
A mist hangs o'er the river,
Lights twinkle on the Hill.

One such a night one wonders,
What God may hold in store,
A life of high endeavour,
On this or foreign shore?

Perhaps there sits a leader,
A boy who well may be
The saviour of a nation—
If such be destiny.

The sands of time are running,
The hour has come when we
Must bid adieu to boyhood,
And days so fancy free.

Farewell to you who knew us,
To mem'ries sad and gay,
Adieu to you, old B.C.S.,
May God march with you day by day.

Foreword

To the boys of B.C.S., and Old Boys serving in the Navy, Army, and Air Force, and to those Old Boys who have been unable to take an active part in this gigantic struggle for world freedom, I wish to extend, through the medium of the School Magazine, my good wishes for a happy Christmas, and all good luck for 1945.

To those parents whose splendid sons have made the supreme sacrifice in the service of their country, — how proud you must be! — and in your sorrow, feel glad that those same boys were following the only course compatible with their sense of duty, and were happy in their choice.

I welcome back, with great pleasure, our Headmaster, Colonel C. G. M. Grier, M.A., who has been serving with the army for the past two and a half years, and would like to express sincere appreciation to Mr. F. R. Pattison, M.A., for the splendid and efficient way he ran the School, during a very difficult period.

As a B.C.S. Old Boy, I have always looked forward to, and read with pleasure, the School Magazine, and great credit is due to the Magazine Staff, for the interesting information contained therein, and the excellence of the publication. I feel honoured to have the opportunity of contributing to the Christmas edition.

The end of the war is in sight, and the post war world will offer more interesting, and greater openings than ever before, to the young generation now growing up. You will have the responsibilities of carrying on the traditions and examples set by your predecessors. Your task will be even harder, because, in your hands will lie the onus of remaking a war torn and weary world, and the leadership of this great country and our place in the Empire may well rest in your hands.

Now is the time to prepare yourselves for the future, and this will be accomplished, both in the class-room, and on the playing fields. A sound preliminary training will help your further education at College, or later, in whatever walk of life you choose to follow. It will be your duty to see that Canada takes her proper place, and assumes her fair share in the reconstruction, which will fall on the shoulders of all Free countries.

The true meaning of "The Old School Tie" tradition, seems, of late to have been misconstrued, and is used to imply snobbery, and class distinction. To me, the Old School Tie represents something very fine — a symbol of honour, decency, team spirit, and an understanding of our fellow men. In short, behaving to all with a spirit of tolerance and courtesy. An example of this has been demonstrated in all theatres of war. Old Boys in every branch of the Forces, or holding civilian positions, meet for the first time, and at the mention of B.C.S. and memories of school days, are bound together in common interest, pride and comradeship.

The Casualty Lists issued since the War began, speak for themselves of the wonderful service and sacrifice Old Boys of the School are making for Canada, and the Empire.

These things will go far in promoting unity, and understanding, in your dealings with the New World, which will emerge from the present conflict.

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE

On November the 12th a memorial service took place in St. Mark's Chapel for the Old Boys of the School who have given their lives in the present war.

Many of the parents, friends and relatives attended this service whose simplicity added to its beauty. One of the readings consisted of a poem written by F/O P. G. Holt, R.C.A.F., who was killed in 1943. The poem "I Can Still Remember Most Of It All" described the feelings of so many Old Boys. A list of those who have fallen in this war was read:

James Okeden Alexander	Edwin Archer Gerald Hanson
George Edgar Auld	Peter Gratton Holt
Edward Mears Aylan-Parker	James Kenneth Johnston
Edwin Ronald Bennett	John Alexander Kenny
Henry Harrison Bennett	Percy Gartshore Leslie
Edward Francis Herbert Boothroyd	Brian Lynn
Andrew Breakey	Robert George Mackay
John Burton Buckley	Hugh Ellice Mackenzie
Robert Weir Davis	Eric Stuart McCuaig
Philip Weir Davis	Alan Reginald Wynne Robinson
Charles Andre Desbaillets	Gilbert Morrow Sinclair Stairs
Henry de Gaspe Domville	Robert Andrew Starke
Richard Livingstone Duffett	George Ewing Starke
Robert Duncan	Donald Ross Stewart
Randolph Charles Eaton	Tom Thornley Braithwaite Stoker
Lindsay Justin Foss	John Calvin Carson Wallace
George Derek Gibsone	William Archibald Willison
Finn Henry Grinstad	Harold Everett Wood
William Maley Temple Hall

The service closed with the hymn:

Young souls so strong the race to run
 And win each height sublime;
 Unweary still would ye march on,
 And still unweary climb?

R.W.S.

LT. DEREK GEORGE GIBSONE, 21, has been reported killed in action on the Italian front on May 29. He was the son of Mr. Justice and Mrs. George F. Gibsone of Quebec City. Lt. Gibsone, who was a nephew of Maj-Gen. W. W. P. Gibsone, formerly officer commanding Military District No. 4 in Montreal, left McGill University to join the army January, 1942. Educated at Bishop's College School, Lennoxville, he was serving with the Canadian Reconnaissance unit fighting with the Eighth Army in Italy.

Killed in action: L/CPL. ROBERT G. MACKAY, 33, son of Mrs. George B. Mackay of 1546 McGregor street and the late Mr. Mackay has been killed in action in France with the Black Watch. Resigning a commission in the reserve battalion in 1939, he went overseas with the 1st Battalion in 1941 as a private. Well known in Montreal art circles, Lance Corporal Mackay was educated at Bishop's College School and studied art there and abroad. Born at Lethbridge, Alta., he was the grandson of the late Senator Robert Mackay. A brother, Major A. O. Mackay, is serving in Italy. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Trevor Ross and Mrs. Alexander Moffat.

Killed: CAPT. HUGH ELLICE MACKENZIE, 22, of the Canadian Grenadier Guards, who has been killed in action in France while serving on the headquarters staff of the 4th Armoured Brigade. He received his education at Bishop's College School, receiving his B.A. degree in 1941 from Bishop's University. Commissioned in the Guards, he went overseas in April, 1942. Captain Mackenzie was appointed Intelligence Officer at brigade headquarters last autumn, and received his captaincy last April. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mackenzie, of 1621 Sherbrooke Street West.

Killed in Italy: LIEUT. JOHN K. C. WALLACE, 23, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. H. Wallace, of Rockcliffe Park, Ottawa, has been killed in action in Italy where he was serving with the 12th Canadian Armoured Regiment. A grandson of the late Major-Gen. Sir John W. Carson, C.B., and of Lady Carson, and of Edwin B. Wallace, and the late Mrs. Wallace, of Montreal, Lieutenant Wallace was born in Montreal, and received his early education at Roslyn School, Westmount, and Bishop's College School, Lennoxville. He later attended Ashbury College and Queen's University. He is survived by his parents and a sister.

LT. EDWARD AYLAN-PARKER, 27, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aylan-Parker of Lennoxville, Que., and nephew of Mrs. H. R. Fraser, Linton Apartments, Sherbrooke Street West, has been killed in active service while serving on a landing craft of a flotilla engaged off the Normandy beaches since D-Day. Educated at Bishop's College School and at Bishop's University, where he received his B.A. and L.S.T. degrees, Lt. Aylan-Parker went overseas as a lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Regiment in October, 1940, later transferring to the Royal Marines. His only brother, Maj. John Aylan-Parker, of the Royal Canadian Regiment, who went overseas in 1939, is now in command of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, Canadian Army Overseas.

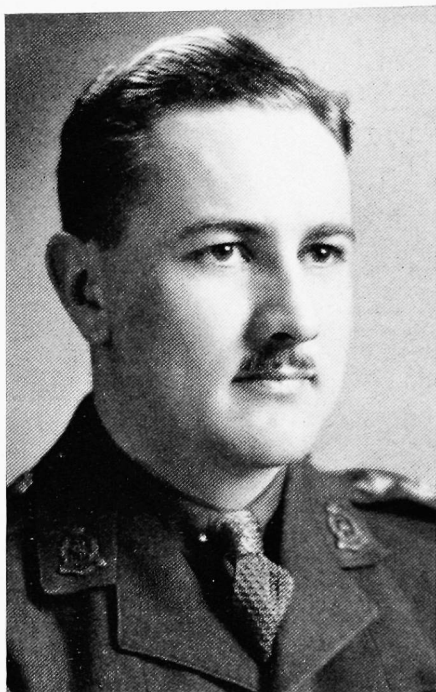

Killed in action: LIEUT. EDWARD F. H. BOOTHROYD, formerly of the Royal Montreal Regiment (M.G.), has been killed in action on the Western Front where he was serving with the 8th Rec'ce Regiment (14th Canadian Hussars). The eldest son of Professor and Mrs. E. E. Boothroyd, of Lennoxville, Lieutenant Boothroyd's wife, the former Doris Elizabeth Banfill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Banfill, of Montreal, formerly of East Angus, lives at 3025 Sherbrooke Street West. Lieutenant Boothroyd attended Bishop's College School and Bishop's University where he obtained his B.A. degree. He then went to McGill University from which he graduated in law in 1940. A member of the Bar Association of the Province of Quebec, he was associated with the firm of MacDougall, MacFarlane, Scott & Hugessen. First commissioned in 1932 while with Bishop's C.O.T.C. he later held the rank of captain in the McGill C.O.T.C. and in 1940 joined the Royal Montreal Regiment, going overseas in June, 1943, as a reinforcement officer to the first battalion.

MAJ. E. RONALD BENNETT, 27, who has been reported killed in action with the 1st Battalion of the Black Watch (R.H.R.) of Canada. Born in Hopewell Cape, N.B., Maj. Bennett was educated at Bishop's College School, McGill University, and Osgoode Hall, Toronto, where he completed second year law. He joined the provisional officers' training school of the Black Watch at the outbreak of war and was commissioned early in 1940, being transferred overseas in February, 1941. He was promoted to captain in 1943 and received his majority just recently in France. Maj. Bennett is survived by his wife, the former Janet Dobell, 1300 Redpath Crescent, and his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Ronald V. Bennett of Sackville, N.B. An only brother, Lt. H. Harrison Bennett serves in France with the Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa. Maj. Bennett is a nephew of Viscount Bennett.

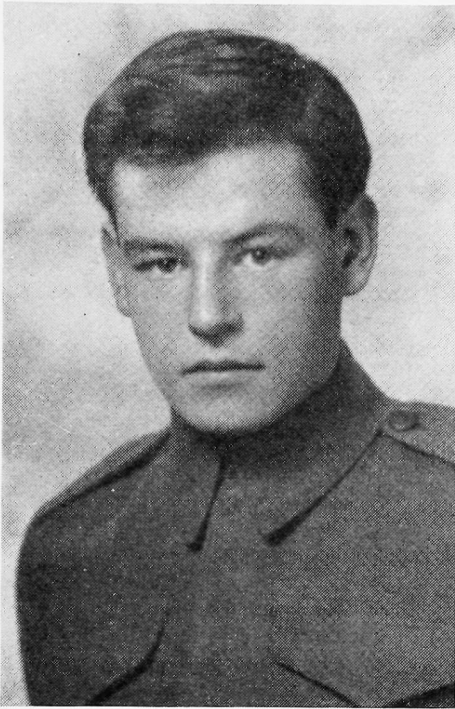

LT. H. HARRISON BENNETT, 24, killed in action in France on August 14 while serving with the 1st Battalion of the Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa. Son of Capt. and Mrs. Ronald V. Bennett of Sackville, N.B. Educated at Bishop's College School and at McGill University where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree, Lt. Bennett joined the Black Watch (R.H.R.) of Canada in September, 1940, and went on active service the following year. He was posted overseas in March, 1943, and was transferred to the Cameron Highlanders there. Lt. Bennett's only brother, Maj. E. Ronald Bennett, was killed with the Black Watch in France a short time ago. He is a nephew of Viscount Bennett.

CAPTAIN ROBERT WEIR DAVIS, R.C.A. M.C., lost at sea. Head prefect 1931. Commander of the Cadet Corps. Captain of the Hockey Team. Captain of the Cricket Team.

FLT/SGT. PHILIP WEIR DAVIS, R.C.A.F., 27, who was reported missing after air operations in September, 1943. The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence Davis, of 533 Clarke Avenue, Westmount. Flt/Sgt. Davis attended Bishop's College School, Lennoxville, before taking up art as a profession. After he proceeded overseas he was attached to the R.A.F. and served as wireless air-gunner in both the bomber and coastal commands. One brother Captain Robert W. Davis, R.C.A.M.C., who was quartermaster of No. 1 Neurological Hospital, was lost at sea. Another brother, Capt. H. Weir Davis, R.C.A. recently returned from overseas and is attached to National Defense Headquarters, Ottawa. A third brother, Lawrence W. Davis, enlisted in the artillery and is now attached to the Reserve Army in Canada. (All four attended B.C.S. Robert was Head Prefect in 1931).

Killed in Italy: L/CPL. GERRY HANSON, 20, only son of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Gerald Hanson, of Montreal, has been killed in action in Italy. He was serving in the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment with which he had fought during the break-throughs of the Hitler and Gustav lines right up to the present fighting on the Gothic Line. He received his education at Bishop's College School and McGill University. From the officers' training corps he went to Brockville, and in August, 1943, left for overseas. He was recently promoted to lance corporal. Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Patsy and Mary Hanson.

LT. BRIAN F. LYNN, 21, son of Col. and Mrs. H. R. Lynn of Thetford Mines, has been killed on service in France. He was serving with the 6th British North Staffordshire Regiment. Educated at Bishop's College School and at Bishop's University, Lennoxville, Lt. Lynn took an O.T.C. course at Three Rivers and Farnham, graduating as a first lieutenant in June, 1943. The following year he volunteered to serve with the British Army and went overseas in April.

LT. ALAN R. W. ROBINSON, 25, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wynne Robinson, 1459 Crescent Street, who was previously reported missing in action on the Normandy front, has now been officially reported killed in action. Educated at Selwyn House and at Bishop's College School, Lt. Robinson joined the Black Watch (R.H.R.) of Canada in 1939, receiving his commission the following year. He proceeded overseas in 1942 as a reinforcement officer of the first battalion. He is survived by his parents and two sisters, Mrs. R. C. Webster of Quebec City, and Sgt. Marjorie Robinson, R.C. A.F. (W.D.)

CAPT. GILBERT MORROW SINCLAIR STAIRS, 23, son of Col. Gilbert S. Stairs, M.C., K.C., and the late Mrs. Stairs, died of wounds received as the result of enemy action in Belgium on September 20. Capt. Stairs was with the 22nd Canadian Armoured Regiment (Canadian Grenadier Guards), having joined this unit in the early part of 1942. He received his education at Bishop's College School and the University of Bishop's College, where he graduated as a B.A. in June, 1941. Besides his father, who resides at 3441 Peel Street, Capt. Stairs is survived by two brothers, Lt.-Cmdr. John F. Stairs, R.C. N.V.R., and Midshipman Robert A. Stairs, R.C.N.V.R.

Killed in Italy: LIEUT. GEORGE EWING STARKE, 31, son of Mrs. R. Starke, of 342 Olivier Avenue, Westmount, and the late Col. Robert Starke, V.D., has been killed in action in Italy while serving with the Cape Breton Highlanders. Member of a family closely associated with the Victoria Rifles of Canada, Lieut. Starke joined the Vics on leaving college. He was commissioned and had risen to captain's rank before the outbreak of war. He volunteered for active service in September, 1939. By the following year he had attained his majority, but reverted to lieutenant's rank to go overseas. He received his education at Bishop's College School, and in civilian life was an accountant. Besides his mother, he is survived by two sisters, Sarah and Marguerite. His brother was the late Major Robert A. Starke, P.P.C. L.I.

Listed Missing in June. FLT.-LT. WARREN M. HALE, R.C.A.F., 24, attached to R.A.F., has been officially reported missing after air operations. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Warren K. Hale, 3193 The Boulevard, Westmount. Flt.-Lt. Hale was educated at Bishop's College School, Lennoxville. In November, 1940, when he was in his third year at McGill, he joined the R.C.A.F. He trained at Toronto, Goderich, Prince Albert and Saskatoon, receiving his wings at the latter place in August, 1941, and receiving his commission as pilot officer four days later. He went overseas two weeks thereafter. He made a tour of bombing operations as pilot of a Boston, during which tour he took part in the Dieppe commando raid, being over that target three times on August 19, 1942. Subsequently, for more than a year, he was on patrol over the North Sea doing rescue work, spotting, assisting and picking up airmen who had come down in the sea. In this work he held the post of flight commander. Recently he has been on further operations.

D-DAY BY SQUADRON LEADER NORSWORTHY
AND LIEUT. TRENHOLME

On December 5, Sqdr. Ldr. Hugh Norsworthy, D.F.C., of the R.C.A.F. and Lieut. Harry Trenholme of the R.C.N.V.R. visited their old school, to give a most interesting talk on their experiences before, on and after D Day. Sqdr/Ldr. Norsworthy, in command of the City of Westmount Squadron, reviewed the operations of his Squadron immediately preceding and after the invasion of Normandy up to the time of his return to this country. Lieut. Harry Trenholme, in command of a flotilla of L.C.T.R.'s, described the part played by the Navy in the landing operations, and more especially, that part played by his flotilla.

We were most fortunate in hearing both the Navy and Air Force version of this combined operation which proved most interesting and enlightening to us all and gave the School a very pleasant afternoon.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS OVER A COAST-TO-COAST NETWORK

November 1942.

"I can promise you this, we won't fail you in the big show because our only aim is to get in there and knock the Hun out of the skies and make Canada as proud of us as we are of the wings she has given us today." With these fighting words LAC ROBERT ALLEN KENNY, of Buckingham, Que., spoke on behalf of the graduating class from No. 2 Service Flying Training School, at Uplands, near Ottawa, after they had been presented with their wings by Prime Minister Mackenzie King at a ceremony in front of Canada's Parliament Buildings. Mr. King is at the left.

(Bob came first in his class and was congratulated by the Prime Minister. James Kenny was third). Both are now Prisoners of War in Germany.

THESE THINGS I LOVE

The flap of the sail, the call of the sea,
 A cold mist at dawn, a boat to the lee,
 The gurgling surge, the channel bell,
 A voice from the fog, and all is well.

The sigh of the wind, the swishing pine,
 The spuming wake, the wayside shrine,
 The evening star, still heaven above,
 A cosy harbour, these things I love!

Editorial

*If we must part, let this our parting be
Peaceful as break the clouds in sunny skies
And let it be, before all mortal eyes,
As smooth as part the swells upon the sea.*

* * * * *

*And tho' our hearts are bruised, we are the fitter.
Thus may we learn to harbour with content
A bright and dear remembrance. Happy thought,
That memory may sweeten, not embitter.*

D.S.N. (VA) (now LAC)

We express our gratitude to Brigadier Victor G. Whitehead, V.D., who has done us the honour of writing a Foreword. The School echoes his welcome back to Colonel Grier and his thanks to Mr. Pattison.

How closely the present is linked with the past! Recently the widow of an Old Boy, Commander Wyatt Rawson, hero of Tel-el-Kebir, died in London. Her house had been bombed twice and she had been forced to move four times. She was a friend of Queen Victoria, who was Godmother to one of her children. Her sons-in-law, Admiral Sir Frank Larkin and Admiral Sir Arthur Duff, and many of her grandchildren have been in the present war, in the Navy. Again and again we recalled his dying words to General Wolseley which have inspired so many, as we read accounts of the deeds of present Old Boys. (It was his father who founded our Cadet Corps and his wife who gave a copy of his picture, painted for the Nation, to the School.)

*"Never a word said the dying man of his pain or his hapless fate,
But the eager words came: 'General, didn't I guide you straight?'"*

*"'It was a star, you know, a star—' and he backward fell;
His young life closed with the service done and the trust fulfilled so well;*

*As long as the English voice shall speak of the Tel-el-Kebir fight
Will be heard the brave Commander's name who guided them straight that night."*

It has been the custom at B.C.S. since the early twenties for each boy on leaving the Sixth to write up a little summary of the main achievements of some other boy during the time he was here. We suggest that any Old Boy who reads this, and to whom the idea commends itself, should do the same for some other Old Boy friend in the war, more especially for those who have given their lives, as our information is often very limited about many, so very many now, and old friends are constantly asking about them here, recalling episodes and escapades of those boys who were so "lovely and pleasant in their lives": Phil Davis, with others, horseback riding, over the hills to North Hatley on a 24th of May, with a laugh, and a smile on his lips all the way, ever happy and having a reflex influence on those around him, making them happy too, typical of the many brave whose heroic deeds we hear of: Ted Aylan-Parker, ".....after six weeks off the Normandy coast where we had been since D Day a storm suddenly sprang up and eventually the convoy was broken up.....Ted was travelling in the Flotilla officer's craft which went back to see if they could help any of those who had fallen out.....the Commanding Officer is also missing..... we were such good pals, in the five months we were together we worked up a comradeship which could only be broken as it was.....": A close friend of Warrie Hale asking for his B.C.S. Magazine as a souvenir and saying: "I miss him all the time, everywhere, as I do my brother".... Gerry Hanson getting into the fight immediately on leaving school, volunteering to go overseas at the earliest possible moment, refusing the opportunity for a commission in order to stay with "a grand lot of fellows" with whom he had been training and get into action with them, and then giving his life at the age of twenty: George Starke forgetting his own safety:

"As you have no doubt been aware our regiment took an active part in the assault on the Gothic Line and while making a further penetration in this line our Company took up a depression position on a ridge just south of "Coriono" where we dug in and remained for several days and nights under intense shelling and mortaring the whole period and every one of our positions in clear view of the enemy, only a matter of yards away so that the least movement brought down a barrage. Well it was during the latter part of this period that one of George's men was hit quite seriously in his trench and George without a thought for his own personal safety went immediately to his assistance and with the aid of a stretcher bearer carried him to safety. It was on his return to his position that the inevitable happened, George heard it coming and he and the stretcher bearer dove for a trench but too late and George received a clean wound from a sliver, killing him instantly." (Part of a letter from the surviving officer.)

As we recall the artistic talent of George Auld, Andy Breakey and Bob Mackay, read letters again from those boys, Derek Gibsone, and others who once brightened B.C.S. and made it their home, we ask ourselves in deep sorrow and with reverence: Cui bono? Why this sacrifice? Why the weariness of Hong Kong and other dark prisons? Why the constant strain waiting for news of the missing? Why those deep, deep shadows from which alone spring hope, as in a picture where the deepest shadows produce the highest brightness? The School is showing by its earnestness that it appreciates these sacrifices in a most solemn way and realizes that only the brightness and vision of a better world which it and everyone will endeavour to create will make these sacrifices splendid.

ON PARTING

When I have left these aged halls,
To see no more these ivied walls,
No more to work and laugh and play
Know that I would have liked to stay
To see the mud-capped football field,
The "Recti Cultus" on the shield,
The cricket and the hockey games,
The boys who bear so many names.
I'd like to see Inspection Day,
The melting snow and ice of May,
The line outside the prefects' door,
The moving feet on every floor
The timid new boys every year,
Who come to tread these halls with fear,
And leave to walk the paths of life,
To learn of love and work and strife.

O Bishop's think but this of me,
I too, was once a part of thee.

J. M. CALDER.

The Choir

Very little difficulty was found in selecting the choir this year, because the bass and tenor sections were already filled, in large part, by such worthy veterans as Price I, Evans I, Stevenson, Pitfield, Sewell, Stoker and Wallace. Their ranks were effectively re-inforced by Byles, Price II, Page II, Ford and Fraser, all of whom had experience as trebles. The Altos, who are manfully abiding their time until they are converted into tenors and basses are: Boswell, Gordon, Rider, Cresswell and McCulloch. Some of these were former treble soloists who are patiently resigning themselves to much less spectacular roles. They can be heard still, in a subdued way, at times, much to our surprise and delight. The trebles are doing their best to reach the high standard set in former years, and are ably led by Sheard, Lawrence I, Lawrence II, Ballantyne, Milling, Ashworth, Martin III, Campbell, Pattison, Whitehead II, Neil, Jekill II, Evans II, Sheib I, Scheib II, Baird and Winder II. Furse has been forced to drop out temporarily, but will be able to join the altos after Christmas. MacDougall and Gilmour are also rapidly arriving at this stage of vocal uncertainty. New acquisitions are: Berlyn, Bird, Chapman, Grier, Mather, Patterson, Rankin, Setlakwe, van Millingen and Morgan.

Two services called forth the best singing: the Memorial Service on November 12th, and the Communion Service sung by a choir of 34 selected boys at St. Stephen's Church, Coaticook, on November 19th.

Interest is now centered upon the Carol Service on December 17th and upon our visit early in 1945 to St. Mathias' Church in Montreal.

We wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Stoker for her gift of 20 surplices and to Miss Reyner for her care of the cassocks and surplices, and for her assistance before and after the Coaticook trip.

SACRIFICE

In the springtime of manhood he stood
 Hating evil and loving good.
 Loving his life, he laid it down
 Not for laurel wreath or crown
 But gladly, that life for you might be
 Joyous, righteous, noble, free.
 Evil vanquished,
 Finished strife,
 'Twas for this he gave his life.

TOUCHES OF POETIC GENIUS

WORKS OF K. W. KNATCHBULL-HUGESSEN, WHO DIED, AGE 17, ASSEMBLED IN VOLUME
"JEUNESSE". By Kenneth Wyndham Knatchbull-Hugessen. Southam Press; $1.

REVIEWED BY DR. W. D. WOODHEAD

This attractively printed little book contains a selection from the poems composed by a boy who died in the springtime of his promise before reaching the age of eighteen. The earliest dates from his thirteenth year; the latest was written before he was seventeen and a half. Yet there is no precocity, no unnatural smartness, about these youthful productions. They are the work of a perfectly normal boy with a passion for the sea and a love of occasional solitude. He was no unhealthy introvert, as the poems prove, but he enjoyed escaping at moments from his friends to a world that was all his own. And his verses are the fruits of that solitude which meant so much to him.

Readers of his little book will discover that he had an eye for the beautiful, an ear for rhythm and harmony. His youthful idealism, his pensive delight in the world around him, his fastidious taste are written into his poems; and the reader is astonished at the high quality of the verses penned by one so young. The sonnet form is admittedly hard to master, and the following sonnet, Endurance, does not read like the work of a boy of fifteen:

Ho, friend, be gay: tomorrow's dawn is near,
Our night-long labors have not been for naught;
Pull hard your oar; gone is the hour of fear,
Passed are all hours with any danger fraught.
The toil is hard. The night is long, indeed,
And tired eyes, and stiff, wet limbs are ours;
But where alone no man could hope succeed
We have succeeded with our banded powers.
I would have, ere the sundown, put to beach,
Had not your toils inspired me to go on;
The other's labor has encouraged each
And, on past all endurance, we have gone.
Where one alone could not have helped but fail,
Two have o'ercome the sea, the night, the gale.

The poem addressed To A — on page 32 is remarkable for its maturity and subtlety. There are touches of real genius in its phrasing and in the way in which it works up to a climax. And throughout the book the reader will be startled by vivid and arresting lines.

The Memoir, written by his father, which precedes the poems, is profoundly moving by virtue of its very simplicity. It completes the portrait which the poems partly reveal. Had not the night fallen so early, that youthful promise might have flowered into splendid fruition. But even those who never knew him will feel, after reading this slender volume, that he has left behind him memories to "Smell sweet and blossom in his dust."

School Notes

We welcome back Colonel C. G. M. Grier as Headmaster of the School. For two and a half years Col. Grier has been on army service, and was Director of Royal Canadian Army Cadets during the latter part of his absence from B.C.S.

F. R. Pattison, Esq., has been Acting Headmaster during Colonel Grier's absence and the School owes him a debt of gratitude for his efficient running of the School in the interim.

WE WELCOME TO THE SCHOOL J. H. TURNER, ESQ.

Mr. Turner comes to us from the University of Cincinnati where he obtained his Ph.D. last spring. He is a native of Ontario and spent his undergraduate days at Victoria College in the University of Toronto. He has taken over most of the Latin classes in the Upper School.

THE KENNETH HUGESSEN POETRY PRIZE

The Kenneth Hugessen Poetry Prize for the year 1943-1944 was won by G. E. Janner, who submitted three poems; two of them were sonnets, "Challenge", and "Spring 1944", and the third was a descriptive poem, "The Iceberg".

HONOURS

Greville Janner (B.C.S. '41-'44) has been awarded a Senior Foundation Scholarship (in Classics) at St. Paul's School, London.

A wedding of considerable interest is to take place at St. Michael's, Bergerville, Que., on December 27th, 1944, when Miss Elizabeth Anne Morewood, daughter of Mr. Frank E. Morewood (B.C.S. 1899-1902) and Mrs. Morewood, will become the bride of Mr. Robert Lewis Evans, Housemaster at B.C.S. Though Miss Morewood's father is a resident of Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, he belongs to an old Quebec family which has many connections with B.C.S. Mr. Evans was for five years a master in the Prep., where he was known by numerous small boys as "Uncle Louie", a friend and playmate, and is still affectionately remembered by Old Boys of the Prep. In 1940 he joined the Upper School Staff, becoming Housemaster of the School House in 1941. The School wishes him the best of everything in the way of happiness and success in the years to come, and looks forward to welcoming him and his bride after the Christmas holidays.

The following members of the R.A.F. were our guests at dinner on November 1st:

CADET CORPS NOTES

This year the Corps fell in for the first time on the 16th of September, having a strength of 78 cadets and 42 recruits. The whole Corps was then fitted for khaki cadet uniforms which arrived four weeks later.

The following officers were appointed:

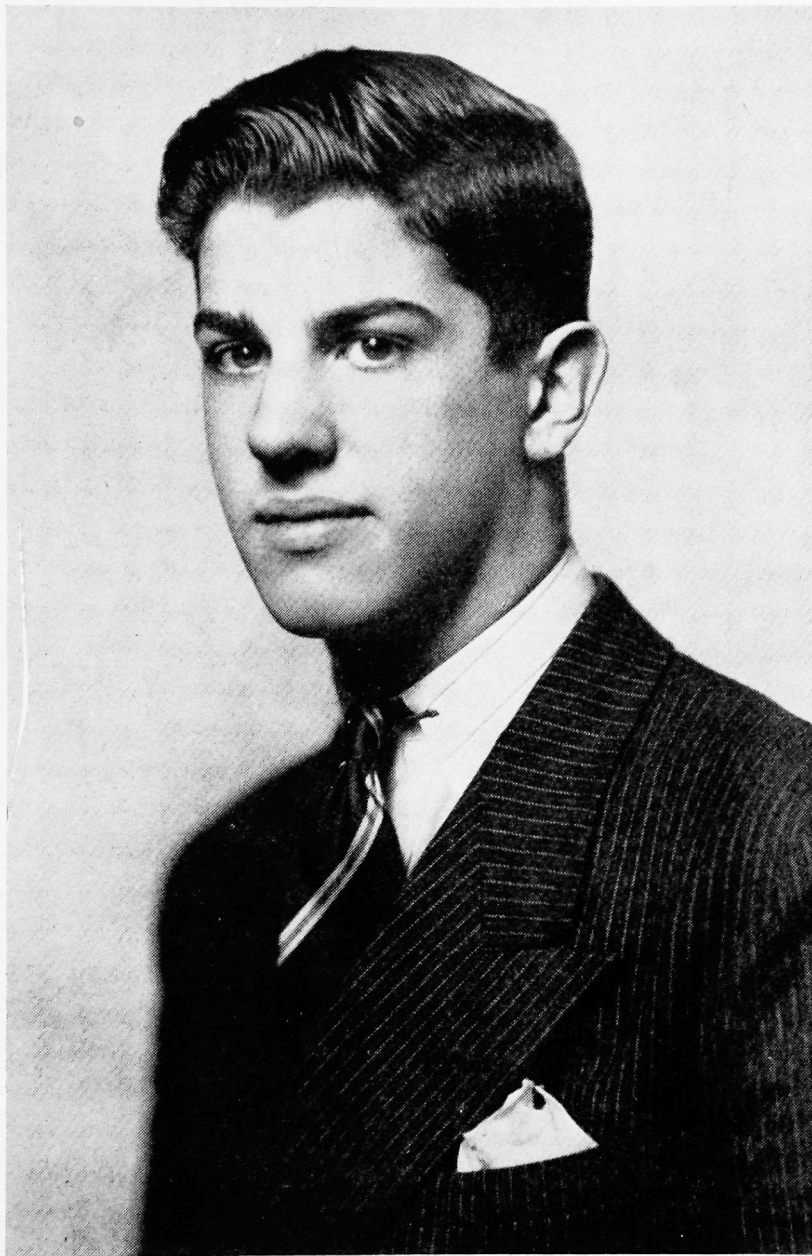

- Cadet Major — D. N. Stoker.
- Cadet Lieutenant — P. R. Satterthwaite.
- Cadet Lieutenant — R. W. Stevenson.
- Cadet Lieutenant — D. Foss.
- Cadet Company Sgt. Maj. — M. S. Wallace.
- Cadet Band Sergeant — H. Cleveland.
- Cadet Quarter Master Sgt. — P. Graves.

The annual parade to the Cenotaph in Lennoxville was held on November 12. Sgt. Maj. Wallace read the names of those Old Boys who have fallen in the present war. The Cadet Corps periods have been changed from Saturday morning to three on Friday afternoon, and full advantage of the good weather has been taken by getting outside for various drill movements. The Corps was fortunate in getting army great coats which have been fully appreciated by all.

BEN - Y - VRACKIE

Ben-Y-Vrackie, lofty mountain,
 Towering to the sky above;
Perthshire's joy and Scotland's pride,
 Awing those who nature love.
Snow-capped peaks by mists surrounded,
 Inaccessible to man;
Show me one to climb this mountain,
 Very few brave nature's ban.
Purple are the slopes with heather,
 Green the woods of noble pine;
White hares leap atop the mountain,
 Feed them; they are truly thine.
Both thy peaks the clouds encircle,
 By thy base there flows the Tay,
Peaceful, slow and dreamy river
 Ever drifting on its way.
Many years since I have seen thee,
 Caledonia's towering giant,
Overshadowing Pitlochry,
 Proud and upright and defiant.
I will come back, Ben-Y-Vrackie,
 When the clouds of war are past
To fish thy rivers, pluck thy flowers,
 When I have come home at last.

Thanksgiving Day

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES

"Hats off to the past, coats off to the future and thank God for Bishop's College School and other schools like this which will help to build a better Canada", said Brigadier C. G. Hepburn, principle Protestant chaplain for the Canadian armed forces, in concluding his short address to boys of the graduating class in Lennoxville. The occasion was the annual Thanksgiving Day presentation of prizes.

Col. C. G. M. Grier, headmaster of Bishop's College School, opened the ceremony with an address which covered events of the 107th year of the School's existence. After expressing appreciation of the parents, the director and the staff and himself of the work which Mr. F. R. Pattison and Mr. W. A. Page had done in the past two and a half years while Mr. Grier was away from the School, he announced the appointment of Mr. Pattison as assistant-headmaster.

Congratulating the matriculants on their fine academic and athletic record, Col. Grier especially complimented A. R. H. Dobell on his outstanding achievements. Dobell's amazingly high marks of 99 in physics, 100 in algebra, 100 in trigonometry, and 100 in geometry won for him the Sir Edward Beatty Scholarship in mathematics at McGill University. G. F. Janner, now in his native England, was another student whose meritorious record won praise.

OTHER NOTABLES

Other notables on the speaker's platform included Mr. Justice C. Gordon MacKinnon, Brigadier Victor Whitehead, formerly in command of the 5th Infantry Brigade, Rev. A. H. McGreer, principal and vice-chancellor of Bishop's University, Major W. W. Ogilvie, and Mr. Jackson Dodds, who presided.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. M. Grier were at home to visitors and the staff at the headmaster's residence, "Plantation", from 4.30 to 6 o'clock. Among those present at this function were Brigadier Hepburn, who preached the Thanksgiving sermon in St. Mark's Chapel at the 11.30 service. Tea and coffee were poured by wives of several members of the staff, Mrs. W. A. Page, Mrs. F. R. Pattison, Mrs. R. L. Young and Mrs. H. L. Hall, while assisting Mrs. Grier were Mrs. G. H. Moffatt, Mrs. J. G. Patriquin, Mrs. R. M. Boright, Mrs. B. Thompson and Mrs. E. Baret.

Other guests included Mrs. E. A. Beardmore, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ballantyne, Jackson Dodds, Col. and Victor Jekill, Maj. and Mrs. Ogilvie, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Molson, Mrs. Harold Beament, Mrs. T. T. Stoker, Mrs. R. W. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Morgan, A. H. Martin, Mrs. A. L. McCulloch, Mrs. Allen Boswell, Mrs. C. B. Price, Brigadier and Mrs. G. V. Whitehead, Capt. and Mrs. J. A. McMaster, all of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Price and Mrs. J. H. Price, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Martin, of Quebec, and Mrs. G. E. Arnold, Mrs. Jean Brown, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jones, Mr. and Miss Courey, Mrs. L. E. C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gault, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gilmour, Mrs. H. B. Glassford, Maj. and Mrs. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Walls, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Warneford, G. H. Boright, Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Mrs. H. Stockwell Day, Mr. and Mrs. Faerman, Mrs. C.

F. Furse, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Corlett, Mrs. C. H. Gordon, Mrs. N. Scholes, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Seely, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Stairs and G. M. Stearns.

OTHER VISITORS

On Thanksgiving Day other visitors were Mrs. L. T. Porter, Mrs. Colin Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Calder, Mr. Justice and Mrs. C. Gordon Mackinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Berlyn, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Spafford, Mrs. Finley and Miss Margaret Finley, Mrs. Popham, Mrs. L. C. Mather, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fraser and two prize-winners, Anthony Dobell and Gerard Stern from McGill.

Other old boys of the School included, O/S Stanley Dodds, E. Cadenhead, J. Fuller and Don Sutherland and Tom Hodgson, David Phelps, David Struthers, E. Loggie, B. Boright, K. Darling, D. McBoyle, J. Jarret, A. Reid and E. Brown, all of Montreal, and Jack Jenkins of Ottawa.

THE ROCKIES

Rocky Mountains, high and mighty,
Frontier of the West and East,
Restful lodge of all who love thee,
Bird and fish or man and beast.

Lofty castles in the heavens,
Pride of east and pride of west,
Shadowed by thy snow-capped turrets,
Lie the lands that we love best.

Silver streams with splashing salmon,
Shapely peaks where eagles nest,
This is what thy lovers long for,
Heaven-hung haunts of peace and rest.

Deer and cougar take their leisure,
Playing in your valleys green,
Glaciers hanging high above them,
Slowly slide down slopes serene.

Once a barrier to travel,
Now by trails of iron spanned,
Spiral tunnels, hanging bridges,
Works of wonder by man's hand.

Your great battlements unconquered,
Some day may I see again!
Wander through your spots of beauty,
Tread once more your wild domain.

Chapman's

The house has been running smoothly this year under the expert guidance of Leslye Gault and Jock Ford except for the occasional protest from Bennett and Co. re the addition of their names to the ever-lengthening list of days.

There was a splendid representation of the house in the cross country race this year, Pitfield and Allan coming third and fourth gave us some needed points for next summer's dorm relay team. There were several others who placed further down the list and we are also thankful for their additional points.

We only had two members on the first football team, Gault and Neill; but Graham, Pitfield, Skelton, and Cleveland were subs; while Price and Allan both got second team colours.

I now take this occasion to thank Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt for their kindness during the past term and wish them a very merry Christmas. C.N.

Williams'

Cox, Biard, Martin and Hickey I were the occupants of Williams' House this term with Mackenzie and Foss as their Headboys.

Martin, our one man choir, obliged us all with his singing before we induced him to bring up his radio, without which the house would not be complete. Derick was a prominent member of first crease this football year. Hickey donated, at different times throughout the term, very excellent "feeds". Ron was also a member of first crease. Cox who held the upper hand most of the term in supplying the house with hair tonic has finally realized that the stuff doesn't evaporate and has put it under lock and key.

Biard having an excellent knowledge of good literature, helped to keep our library in trim, which has reached quite an admirable size.

Mackenzie and Foss both won their colours on first team and are looking forward to the skiing season.

We would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Patriquin for the treats which they have given us each Sunday evening and hope they have a very merry Christmas.

Six-A Form Notes

The six A form is really a "hand"
All the boys are just one happy band.
First comes Mole Bronfman, Canadians he chose;
If they don't win the Stanley he'll pay through the nose.
M. H. Evans has a racket with Day
Called K. H. Statistics, and for love they play.
Scott, our poor joker, we now have to mourn,
Table six critics caught the cow in the corn.
We present you child Gault whose waddle is famous,
And whose an'ics in French class made him seem brainless.
The gleam was great in R. Hickey's eyes,
When he found out that food was the cross-country prize.
Groaner Martin's the man who draws a good laugh,
When he claims the best paper is the Quebec Telegraph.
You should see the expression on the bewildered stork
When he was called upon to deliver the PORK.
Jimmy MacD. wishes he had cash or a car,
So he might be able to take out Betty R.
If you ask Bill Price what he's doing this Christmas,
"Like last year" he says, "I'm going north with the Missus."
Satterthwaite claims "Where there's a will there's a way,
I'll get this darned French if it takes me all day."

"It's great! It's terrific! Venez voir son nom,"
 Says Setlakwe pointing to Bob Filion.
 Philippe our librarian, keeps a tab on the books,
 Daily, more rejoicing, at his dear France he looks.
 Des, like a camel, does not have to eat
 His thirty-nine inches keeps him thriving complete.
 Then comes Sunshine, our gay Mike Wallace,
 His smooth line and appearance doesn't only fool us.

Far from all criticism or what masters say,
 There is no form more clever than good old six A.

Six-B Form Notes

Six B had a holiday,
 It made them so blue,
 That Biard did his next week's prep
 As he is wont to do;
 For as 'tis often whispered round,
 He is a swot, 'tis true.

Arnold was yelling down the hall,
 A noisy lad is he.
 Graves never knows his rifle drill,
 As you can plainly see;
 While Calder who hears every sound
 Collects no doctor's fee.

Charlie was shining newboys' shoes
 Fearful of "going in".
 Cox, forgetting his gaiting slip
 Was sitting in "Drag Inn",
 With Foss, a very surly lad,
 Who hates the feminine.

Mitchell can't stand model planes,
 And Winslow hates N.B.
 In case you take this poem to heart,
 Just take a tip from me
 If you come in to see the form
 It's not the way we'll be.

Five-A Form Notes

5 Arts has hit the news again,
And in it one can see,
Amongst a host of noble men,
Our standout brain—Drifty.

Though Boswell not to be outdone
Is setting a stiff pace,
If Huggett's brains begin to work
We'll see a real close race.

The seniors in our happy gang,
Johnson and Bennett be,
Combine with Ford, the form's head boy,
To make a gallant three.

The new-boys, Courey, Bronfman, Vass,
Seem to do alright;
Though being the zilchers of the class
Keeps them up all night.

McMaster one and Muscles Miller
They are of friends the best;
McMaster fooling all the time,
And Miller the masters' pest.

And if perhaps you've ever seen
The masters shout and frown;
You too, would wonder with amaze
At Messrs. Page and Brown.

Now that you've read about 5 Arts,
Our surrows, faults and joys,
I'd like to see you try and find
A finer bunch of boys.

Fifth Science Form Notes

We've heard said that our form's one,
 Where smart boys go to have some fun,
 There's Arnold II and Arnold three,
 They both hail from the horse country.
 Beau is one who loves to joke,
 Jeff Skelton says he'll never smoke.
 White's the lad at whom girls stare,
 It is at Cleve that bugles blare.
 Jim missed passing just by ten,
 He and Brinsley will try again.
 Pitfield, Porter, Byles and Seager
 All to pass this year are eager;
 Robin's one in hockey famous,
 Seager tries in vain to tame us,
 Porter is our apple boy,
 And Byles is our pride and joy.
 Duff Sweeny from Lunenburg hails,
 Having been run out on the fails.
 Fisher seems a magic name,
 He's a sergeant of great fame.
 Price II's a budding football player,
 They say he's quite a woman slayer.
 Williams II, another chap's name,
 He is also of football fame.
 Lorny Walls is a really fine lad,
 McMaster's expressions are always the fad.
 Johnny Allan's our musician first hand,
 He's a corporal in the band.
 Flying gliders Williams I,
 With him dear friends our poem is done.

Four=A Form Notes

Four A is a form of many brains,
 To do their work they take great pains.
 First there's Pickles, who I fear
 Will have a voice that's not too clear.
 Then "shrimper" Price
 Who's a star on the ice.
 Now there's Codfish, a captain great,
 To miss the last game was his fate.
 And big John Ross of second team,
 Who in rugby is on the team.

And Mooney, a captain small
 Who hurt his shoulder in a fall.
 Then there's brainy Bickerdyke,
 With Mr. Turner he loves to fight.
 Of course there's speedy Moley
 Who never ran too slowly.
 Then there's Gopher Pop and Ducky Sheard
 The other side they always smeared.
 LeMoo, he was a flashy end
 For his mistakes he'd always mend.
 Little Mole is a Toronto fan,
 One day we hope he'll be "big man".
 And Squint, the cross-country always ran.
 Beefy measures five by five,
 With School rations he'll keep alive;
 Athol, band sergeant hopes to be,
 His ambition we hope he'll see.
 Gavin hails from Selwyn House
 We think he's a little mouse.
 Harty comes from Saraguay
 Cricket games he loves to play.
 Ian is sent in to-night
 Because with Bill he had a fight.
 Winky an old boy of the Prep,
 He is always full of pep.
 Solly is a speedy star,
 In track we think he will go far.

Four-B Form Notes

- BURLAND: Fuzzy comes from Mount Royal; he is quite outstanding in rugby on the line. His chief pastime is lassoing boys in class.
CORLETT: Albert is a Sherbooke lad, and he owns one of the best huts in the woods, which he has built with the aid of a couple of boys.
HARTT: Bob hails from Hampstead. He was quarterback on his rugby team. He receives letters from Compton regularly.
JEKILL: Pete is always trying to find new methods of solving Geometry problems.
JONES: Jones, the latin lover, is the man who saved his team from losing in football, by scoring two touches in a row.
SCHOLES: Bill was captain of his Rugby team. His team did very well this season considering the many injuries that befell them.
SETLAKWE: Set plays fullback and kicker on the Senior league. He is a likely prospect for first team hockey this year. "Good luck Set".
SIM: Paul hails from Ottawa, and is a very good tackler on his team, as well as a very fast runner.

- WARNEFORD: Neil hails from Jamaica. Hobby: Arithmetic; in this subject he helps many of the boys in his form.
- WEBSTER: Also hails from Jamaica, being one of the best soccer players in the School. Web. is trying hard this year in his form, hoping to be promoted at Christmas.
- WINDER: Doc. hails from Lennoxville, and this year he proved to be a very good tackler on his team. Doc. made the under sixteen team this year. He has to do his prep. in a hurry every night as he leaves for home at 8 p.m.
- WINSLOW: Paul is one of the smartest boys in the form, and he hails from Montreal. Paul is always trying to outwit the masters.

Three-B Form Notes

Who are the pupils on the roll in 3 B?
Why just read this closely and you'll soon see.

There are Martin, McMichael, and Scheib, only 3
Who entered this class from the Prep C.O.D.

We can't forget Morgan, he'd say: "I object",
Nor Macfarlane whose brother was once a prefect.
We won't leave out "Plushie" our form master dear,
Nor Courey nor Hickey who'd fit in one's ear.

Then come the Prices who are "dear" to us all,
Almond and Jamieson end the roll call.

The Science Club

We commenced activities this year with the largest enrolment which it was possible for us to accommodate. At our first meeting we elected the following to office: President, ARNOLD II; Vice-President, J. ALLAN; Sec. Treas., G. SEELY.

The following are the topics that have been discussed and demonstrated up to the present:

- (a) Expansion of solids, liquids and gases when heated.
- (b) The Electric Eye.
- (c) Electro-statics and Electro-magnetism.
- (d) Neon Tubes made to glow from induction coil.
- (e) Preparation of Chlorine.
- (f) Light and Radio — activity.

We are obliged to x x x x x , one of the greatest scientists to ever cross the St. Francis River, for visiting us on several occasions for work in chemistry. W.F.L.

THE CROSS COUNTRY RACE

This year the annual Cross Country Race was run over the same course as two years ago. At the start Mike Wallace and Peter Satterthwaite set a gruelling pace. However, at the half way point the latter slowed and Wallace took over, alone, as the pace setter. From the very beginning R. Hickey set a steady pace cutting down Wallace's lead until at the railroad tracks he caught up with Wallace and passed him. From then on it was a fight between Wallace, Hickey and Pitfield, who had kept even place with Hickey from the start. Near the School, Pitfield fell out of line with a cramp. Hickey opened up during the last 400 yards and crossed the finish line 21 seconds over Mike Wallace. The time for the run was twenty minutes and thirty-three seconds, to beat Bill Rowe's record of 29 minutes and 8 seconds. Wallace's time was 28 min. 54 seconds to beat Rowe's record also, followed by Pitfield with a time of 29 min. and 32 seconds.

In the junior race the starting post was on the road branching off the main road. Albert Corlett set out in the lead with a fine pace, followed by Thomas and Huggett. This order was kept all the way and Corlett crossed the line with a time of 23 minutes and 33 seconds. Thomas with a time of 23 min. and 50 seconds and Huggett with a time of 23 min. and 59 seconds.

One of the biggest turnouts for many years ran in the race. Entries totalled 63 in both the Senior and Junior. This year the cross country and relay races combine, in total points, to win the 'coveted' tuckshop cup.

Starters for the race were, Senior starter Mr. Patriquin and Junior starter Mr. Evans.

RIGHT

The right or wrong of any act I do
Is not the right or wrong which governs you;
For what I know is false, is false to me,
Although the judging years may deem it true.

Whatever be the sin that I commit,
Whether it be black and dark as night;
It's mine, not yours, and I may take the blame,
To make me judge between the wrong and right.

My friend, if you would ever break God's laws,
And say that Satan's kingdom is the right;
Remember this; that God can still forgive,
If you would only recognize God's Light.

June Closing

We take the following from the Gazette, June 15:

GROUP CAPTAIN H. MOLSON PRESENTS PRIZES TO WINNERS—

J. A. FULLER WINS WINDER CUP

Lennoxville, June 14.—The importance to modern warfare of the training received in competitive sports was stressed here today by Group Captain Hartland Molson, R.C.A.F. of St. Hubert, in presenting the prizes at the annual sports day at Bishop's College School.

An old boy of the School, Group Capt. Molson declared that "Today all warfare depends on teamwork, stamina and determination. These qualities have been carried from the playing fields of Lennoxville into all our wars and have earned for the School its very high reputation. We all realize, he continued, "the very important part sports play in training and we cannot do too much to encourage them."

Group Capt. Molson warned the students, however, that "sports in themselves are not enough to develop all those qualities which are essential both in war and peace," citing as an illustration the fact that "there have been many men who distinguished themselves in other fields." Bishop's College School he added, could be proud of its scholastic as well as of its athletic record.

Group Capt. Molson was introduced by Major E. de L. Greenwood, chairman of the Board of Governors of the School, who presided at the prize-giving. William Mitchell, of Montreal, also an old boy of the School, thanked Group Capt. Molson.

Also on the platform was M. Stearns, of Megantic, a member of the Board of Governors, F. R. Pattison, headmaster, and J. G. Patriquin, a member of the teaching staff.

TYLER TOP MAN

Heading the list of prize winners were J. A. Tyler, Westmount, senior all round champion, A. R. C. Dobell, Westmount, intermediate all round champion, R. H. Pitfield, Cartierville, Junior all round champion, and D. M. Stearns, Megantic, prep school all round champion. This was the second year in which D. M. Stearns was awarded the prep school challenge cup.

Of special interest was the presentation for the first time of the Winder Cup, given by Mrs. Winder, in memory of her husband, Dr. J. B. Winder, a pupil at the School from 1890 to 1896 and School physician from 1910 to 1944. Given for "strength of character as manifested by gentlemanliness, sportsmanship and industry," the cup was presented by Mrs. Winder, on Group Capt. Molson's request, to J. A. Fuller, of Westmount, a student in the senior matriculation class.

During the course of the sports events Robert McBoyle, of Westmount, tied the record for the 100-yard dash set in 1924 by Group Capt. Molson.

The prize list was as follows: Track and Field, Senior: 100 yards (Balfour Cup), J. Sifton, J. Tyler; 220 yards, J. Sifton, J. Tyler; 440 yards, (Senator White Challenge Cup), A. R. C. Dobell, R. McBoyle; half mile (Allan Challenge Cup), A. R. C. Dobell, D. Phelps; 120 hurdles, D. Hodgson, J. Sifton; High Jump, J. Sifton, D. Hodgson; Broad Jump (Allan Challenge Cup), J. Tyler, D. Hodgson; Mile (open), (Kaulback Medal), J. Moffatt, R.

Hickey; Throwing Cricket Ball (Allan Challenge Cup), T. Hodgson, L. Gault; Shot put (open), W. Price, D. Hodgson; Discus (open), W. Price, D. Hodgson; Three-Legged Race (open), G. Janney and R. Ford.

Intermediate: 100 yards, R. McBoyle, G. Janner; 220 yards, R. McBoyle, G. Janner; 120 yard hurdles, D. Foss, R. McBoyle; High Jump, D. Foss, W. Price; Broad Jump, G. Janner, R. McBoyle.

Junior: 100 yards, R. Pitfield, M. Page; 220 yards, R. Pitfield, D. Brown; 120 yard hurdles, R. Pitfield, J. Crabb; Broad Jump, R. Pitfield, D. Brown; High Jump, R. Pitfield, D. Brown.

Old Boys' Race, Lt. B. Wiswell, R.C.N.

Senior Dormitory Relay (Tuck Shop Cup), Chapman House; Junior, "G" Dorm.

Eastern Townships Interscholastic meet awards: W. Price, captain, T. Hodgson, A. Dobell, J. Moffatt, R. Bisson, E. Cadenhead, D. Foss, D. Struthers, D. Sutherland, G. Janner, R. McBoyle, H. Cleveland, C. Neill, R. Hickey, W. Arnold, J. Arnold, S. Fraser, J. Allan, R. Pitfield, D. Brown, R. Howard, M. Page, J. Winder, D. Stearns.

Cross country races: Senior (Boswell Challenge Cup) R. Hickey; Junior (Heneker Challenge Cup) R. Pitfield.

Rugby: Cleghorn Cup, for the rugby player who, in the captain's opinion, was the most valuable player on the team, J. A. Tyler.

Shooting prizes, 14 years and under, A. S. Fraser; 15, C. H. Webster; 16 and over, A. Levitt; D.C.R.A. shoot, J. Dickins; Sergeant's trophy shoot, T. Hodgson; Strathcona Medal, H. McCall; McA'Nulty Challenge Cup, A. Levitt.

Dining room fatigues: best supervisor, J. H. Jarrett; best waiter, C. R. Webster.

Tennis, senior singles: J. A. Tyler; senior doubles: J. Tyler and D. Loggie; junior singles: R. Pitfield; junior doubles: R. Miller and H. Price.

Skiing: Whittall Cup, senior D. Phelps; junior, R. B. Evans; Porteous Cup: senior, R. W. Smith; junior, N. Williams.

Cricket bowling average: P. R. Satterthwaite.

Preparatory School prize list:

Stoker Cup, boxing: D. M. Stearns; broad jump: D. Stearns, I. McCulloch; high jump: D. Stearns, J. Gilmour; 100 yards (Challenge Cup), D. Stearns, R. Martin; 220 yards (Price Challenge Cup) D. Stearns, C. Neill; 75 yards, C. Neill, I. Wightwick; hurdles: J. Gilmour, C. Neill; 440 handicap, D. Stearns, T. Parker; throwing cricket ball: D. Stearns, A. van Millingen; Wanstall Cup soccer championship (Selwyn House, Lower Canada College, Bishop's College School), C. C. Ballantyne, captain.

All-round championships: Prep. School Challenge Cup, D. M. Stearns; R. M. C. Cup (junior), R. H. Pitfield; Intermediate Challenge Cup, A. R. C. Dobell; Smith Cup and Fortune Medal (school championship) J. A. Tyler; the Winder Cup, J. A. Fuller.

NOTES ON FIRST TEAM

The first football team played eight matches between October 7th and November 4th. Of these it won five, for a total of one hundred and twenty-five points against six: two were lost with eighteen points against twenty-two, and one was tied, 1-1. Colours were awarded to Price I (captain), Wallace, Satterthwaite I, Neill, Johnson, Sewell, Gault, Fraser, Arnold II, Arnold III, Stoker, Foss, Mackenzie and Satterthwaite II. The average age of the team at the beginning of the season was sixteen years and eight months; its average weight was 157 pounds. In addition to those who got their colours, Graham, Day, Pitfield, and Cleveland were used as substitutes and played in a number of matches. Stevenson, who received his colours in 1943, had to retire after the first match as the result of an old injury. At the end of the season the captain awarded the Cleghorn Cup to the quarterback, Wallace, whose skill in giving the initial impetus to the running plays, added to his own coolness and elusiveness, was an important factor in the success of the season.

The team was exceptionally strong in the attack. It moved forward many yards at a time, skirting the ends or completing long passes for big gains. In the words of the B.C.S. Bulletin to Old Boys it could "drop formal football without getting confused". When not attacking, the team relied too often on what a war-conscious critic might describe as a defence in depth. Price, Johnson and Satterthwaite I were perhaps the only players who would look for tackles and make them no matter what the state of the game or the position of the ball on the field. There were times when Sewell was impassable, or when Neill broke up plays yards behind the enemy's wing, when the insides would not give an inch, or when the downfield tacklers grassed the runner in his tracks. The wings and secondaries stood like a rock in the shadow of their own goal-posts, but between the twenties there was an area where harder, lower tackling would have saved the backs some anxious moments and much running.

With that comment, all criticism of the team must end, for they were a fast, clean, enterprising, and versatile group, and a most interesting team to watch. Generally they were quick to go out in front: once they had a lead they never lost it. Moreover, when pressed by time or circumstances they could carry the ball down the field by a combination of skill and determination which was irresistible. Finally, they were in good condition (thank you, Mr. Lowndes) and, once the best combination for the day had been found, there was no need for substitutes.

The outstanding feature of the team's play was undoubtedly its catching and passing. The essence of good rugby is to catch and pass and catch again. The butter-fingers groping for a bouncing ball, and the solitary champion hugging the pigskin to his fifth rib as he ignores his onside teammates and heads grimly for a mass of tacklers, are interesting characters, but useless ones. There was very little of this kind of thing about the 1944 team. Wallace, Gault, and Satterthwaite caught the kicks and ran them back for many yards with the help of sure and steady passing. In possession of the ball, Wallace found he had a half-line which would rather pass than not, which could give or take the ball on the dead run — and did. If the junior players of the School have stored up for the future any marked impression of the season's matches, it should be an impression of those end-runs, delayed, swing, or from an unbalanced line, in the course of which the ball went out from man to man and did not stop until the yard-sticks had moved a goodly space, or another touchdown had been added to the swelling total.

There were other merits of the team's play which must be mentioned. One was the repeated use of the quick kick, on the first or second down, a play which puts the ball in the proper end of the field with the least fuss and effort. It is a play which, in the absence of good senior football and in the half-light of recently imported Americanisms, is apt to be forgotten. Certainly our opponents had forgotten it—to their cost. Similarly the kick-off and the returned kick were often used to produce the same result. A long kick-off gives the ball to your opponents, but it gives it to them where they like least to have it—on their own goal-line. The rest is up to you. If you break through and steal, the stage is set for a score, and it will be you who score. Incidentally, it is perhaps worth mentioning that your first play in these circumstances should be a "40" with a man onside. Don't take risks or waste time by trying for a touchdown by the pedestrian method. Four to one you'll get it anyway, through a fumble or recovery by your onside man. Touchdowns aside, you'll have a point, and the Ashbury score might well have been 2-1 for the School instead of a one-all tie.

Once, if only once, the principle that a rolling football gathers no mud was applied in telling fashion when Stoker, Fraser, and Foss blocked, dribbled, and recovered the ball in time to change the whole aspect of the second match with Lower Canada. A situation of this kind is sometimes the one opportunity which a wing-man has of achieving undying fame: too often he throws the chance aside by prostrating himself before the ball instead of kicking it.

The interest of Old Boys in the team's progress was much appreciated. They turned out in large numbers on Prize Day, and brought the team back to earth at just the right moment. They turned out again in Montreal, where at least seven former football captains watched the team win the Shirley Russell Cup.

Speaking of captains, one cannot conclude these notes on the first team without a special word about Price. One remembers him as a fourteen-year-old outside wing on the first team of 1941, and one recalls the incident of a year or so later when he pushed aside those who came to his assistance after a particularly heavy tackle had thrown him into the crowd along the touch-line and rescued a little girl whom he had knocked down. He has lost none of the natural ability which earned him a place on the team when he was fourteen or of the natural chivalry which prompted the touch-line incident. With his height and speed, his powerful tackling, long passing, and tremendous kicking he is the most competent footballer we have had at B.C.S. for many years; his personality has made him a most outstanding captain.

October 7th—

B.C.S. vs S.H.S. WON 18-1

In our first game of the season we did a number of things besides play excellent football. A spirit of coolness and of confidence which remained with the team throughout the season was built up. For the opening ten minutes neither side could make a break but in the final minutes of the initial quarter two touchdown passes from Price to Wallace were made. Price converted both majors and the teams switched ends. In the second quarter Sherbrooke edged toward our goal and scored their only point on a rouge. Both teams tightened up in the final session but a sleeper pass from Price to Gault put the game in the bag. Price again converted and the game concluded a few minutes later with the pigskin in our hands well in their territory.

October 9th—

B.C.S. vs OLD BOYS. LOST 12-11

There does not seem to be any excuse for this one, but at least it was a loss to our own Old Boys. They had a good team and a fine lot of sportsmanship. The first score of the game was made by McBoyle on a touchdown pass from Hallward. The home team held well but Darling added a rouge before the half was over. We started well in the final half with a short pass from Wallace to Price which was good for five points. The convert, by means of a pass, failed. Hallward caught a pass off an end run and again the Old Boys were ahead by seven points, the convert having succeeded. The play became hard and serious but Price broke the deadlock going around the end to tally. It was converted well by him but we still remained one point behind till the last whistle. It was an excellent game to watch and showed much excellent football. Well done Old Boys.

October 14th—

B.C.S. vs L.C.C. WON 19-1.

It was a Saturday afternoon, the rain descending in torrents, when the team took up its receiving positions against the Lower Canada College squad. Passing was a virtual impossibility, but by the time the first quarter had ended the B.C.S. steam roller drive had netted two touchdowns. The first was by Wallace on a delayed end-run, after a long plunge by Sewell, and the second was chalked up by Satterthwaite on a buck. Price, as usual, converted both these majors. L.C.C. put a rouge in the second quarter but Price put us ahead for good in the last frame when he recovered a Lower Canada fumble and ran over the line for another touchdown. The convert was completed and Price added a rouge before the end of the game. This game gave Bishop's an eighteen point lead in the two-game, total point series for the coveted Shirley Russel Cup.

October 18th—

B.C.S. vs STANSTEAD COLLEGE. WON 33-2

With perfect weather for our ariel attack the Red and White boys suffered a severe trimming. Price illustrated Mr. Grier's theory that position was better than possession when Stoker recovered a fumble to put Price over the line two plays after he had kicked the ball. Price converted and three plays later sent Gault across on a long forward. This was also converted and before the quarter was out Price had added a field goal. The opposition improved and in the second quarter kicked a rouge but Wallace soon came back with a major off an end-run which was neatly converted by Satterthwaite. Stanstead rouged again in the third quarter but Foss hastily added another major on a short pass. This was also converted by Satterthwaite. Halfway through the final quarter Price ran his second major and Satterthwaite again converted. Apart from fumbles on both sides, this was the most wide open game to date.

October 21st—

B.C.S. vs ASHBURY. TIED 1-1

For the second consecutive Saturday, the field was soggy so once again we played minus our ariel attack, a rather important factor in our offensive play. Price, the captain, was also missing but the team took the field in high spirits and turned in one of the best games of the season. In the first half play was close all the way, but Ashbury managed to get within range and Richardson kicked a rouge. The third quarter was slow, steady play but in the final stanza we made a grand push up the field. With five minutes to go Wallace was tackled a matter of inches from the touch line. It was third down coming up, a hush lay over the side lines as the home team huddled. The correct thing was done and the game tied as Wallace kicked the ball, sending it sailing well beyond reach for one point. The final whistle went three minutes later, after Ashbury had made an unsuccessful drive.

October 25th—

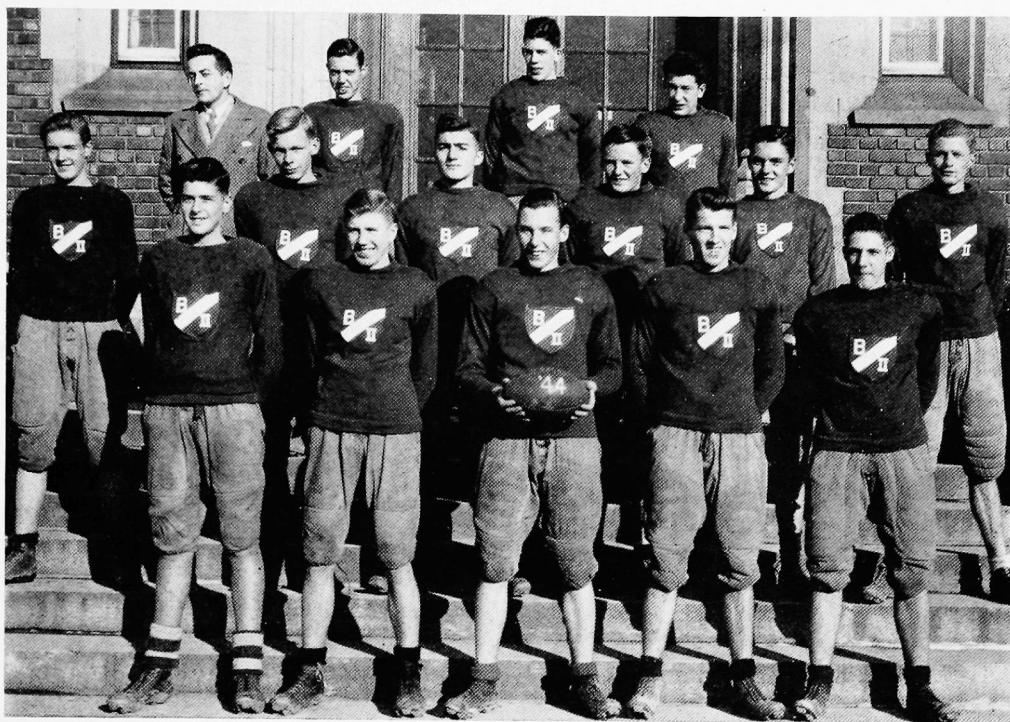

B.C.S. vs S.H.S. LOST 10-7.

The Sherbrooke High School Squad appeared the same as it was when it had been beaten thoroughly three weeks before. However something new had been definitely added. We were once again missing our captain but they had obtained a most amazing pass formation that was their triumph. Before the first half had finished they had scored an unconverted touchdown and Satterthwaite had kicked a rouge. In the third quarter they completed two consecutive passes and again tallied a touchdown. In the last quarter Gault threw a tremendous pass which was completed by Wallace. In the next play after an Arnold II buck which brought us fifteen yards nearer their goal line, Graham ran nimbly around the end on an end-run. Satterthwaite converted but the game was over before we could win back our lost points. The game, one of the roughest of the season, was played in perfect weather.

October 28th—

B.C.S. vs L.C.C. WON 6-1

A huge crowd of Old Boys including eight old football captains witnessing the game made the team feel right at home on the L.C.C. field. This was the year's big game. The Lower Canada team held us all the first half and managed to score a rouge besides. In the second half came one of the most thrilling and spectacular plays ever seen in B.C.S. football. Stoker blocked an L.C.C. kick on their own twenty-five yard, and amidst a flash of red socks, Fraser kicked the ball over their touch-line. Foss rushing fast, fell on the ball and the major was scored. The convert failed but before the game was over

SECOND TEAM

Front Row:— H. L. PRICE, R. D. HICKEY, B. G. DAY, (Captain), J. A. ALLAN, R. A. WILLIAMS.

Back Row:— W. F. LOWNDES, Esq., D. J. MARTIN, R. H. PITFIELD, R. SETLAKWE. Absent:— J. SKELTON, J. ROSS.

Price kicked a long rouge to end the scoring at six to one. L.C.C. applied the pressure, however, but they were held well, and the game ended in victory. The Shirley Russel Cup was destined once again to adorn the halls of B.C.S.

November 4th—

B.C.S. vs STANSTEAD. Won 49-0

In the final game of the season our team trampled Stanstead in a display of spectacular football. Fifty yard passes of end-runs, eighty yards on a buck, bucks of passes, these made a weird set of the most sensational football plays we ever expect to see. At one point of the game the red and white kicked off and before it finally came to rest it was in the home team's possession on their fifteen yard line. Reason? We returned the kick, it was fumbled and we retrieved. It was razzle-dazzle rugby all the way and while Price was the individual hero with 29 points, the whole team was a perfect combination that ended a triumphant season in an even more triumphant way. Price scored four touch-downs, seven converts and two rouges, while Wallace, Gault II and Satterthwaite each tallied a major. Only at one point of the game, during the last minute, was the team in any position to be scored on. And in that one attempt the powerful B.C.S. line held fast. The team looked very smart with their newly attained colours showing up well.

HOUSE LEAGUE RUGBY

Wartime arrangements for the past two years upset, amongst other plans, our pre-war system of maintaining uniformity in the style of rugby throughout the lower creases. With a new First Team coach each year, the difficulties in this respect are obvious, and the Headmaster's return this autumn made possible the resumption of the former arrangement.

Mr. Grier suggested, soon after the rugby season began, that we telescope Third and Fourth Creases, and, on the basis of weight, divide both the Combines and Second Crease, giving us a senior and a junior House League of three teams each.

Six captains picked their teams shrewdly, and a staff of part-time coaches from First Crease explained the fundamental plays, after which Stevenson took over as daily trainer. Two squads, not engaged in League games, thus picked up new plays as they were adopted by First Crease.

There was unflagging interest in both leagues. The quality of rugby, the enthusiasm and competitive spirit amply justified the move. Moreover, some ninety boys were trained, at least partially, in the First Team plays.

Howard's team, after tying with Rider's in the ten-game schedule, won the Senior playoff in a thrilling contest.

Under 16, assembled largely from the Senior House League, played four outside exhibitions, dividing their games with Lennoxville High, and losing a pair to Stanstead's Second Team.

The following were given Under-16 recognition: Boright, Brown, Faerman, Howard, Jones, McMaster I, McMaster II, Rider, Solomon, Stearns, Vass, Walls, Winder.

THIRD CREASE NOTES

Junior rugby this year improved strongly with the amalgamation of Third and Fourth Creases in the Junior League. Three teams, captained by Monroe, Scholes and Hampson were, at full strength, well balanced, and mastered many of the First Team plays under Stevenson's capable direction. The competitive games developed some fine tacklers, sounder line-work and generally better position play than for some years, and gave even the lightest boys a share in their team's victory or defeat.

Amongst a host of good players, we nominate for outstanding performance, the following: Glassford, for all-round capability and complete self-possession; Molson, for his willingness and success in outrunning all opposition; Winkworth, for his receiving of touchdown passes; Price III, for his fine competitive spirit and a lion's share of work; Price V and Hickey II, for truly courageous tackling (grand prospective outsides, these two); Lawrence I and Page II for fine defensive play; and finally, Almond, for thumping tackles and rip-tearing drive on the offensive.

Monroe, captain of the winning squad, carried on after an early injury as an energetic and inspiring non-playing manager, and deserves a large share of the credit for his team's fine showing.

FOURTH TEAM

Front Row:—R. C. MORGAN, D. R. HUGGETT, D. W. MONROE, (Captain), R. M. HARTT, S. B. THOMAS
Second Row:—R. B. EVANS, R. K. PRICE, D. G. CAMPBELL, P. H. JEKILL, V. R. BENNETT, J. T. PRICE

Saturday, October 28th—

B.C.S. AT MACDONALD COLLEGE

We arrived safely at Ste. Anne de Bellevue early in the afternoon of Oct. 28th. We were surprised to learn that our opponents used only American rules, but we agreed upon Canadian rules for the second half. Macdonald, however, used their experience in unlimited interference to good advantage and the damage was done in the first half. In the second half, however, under our own code, we held Macdonald to a touch in the dying moments of the game.

First Quarter — Harris ran our kick-off to our 25 yard line. Conover plunged for a touch which was not converted. Hickey of B.C.S. intercepted a Macdonald pass for an unconverted touch. Harris on an end run, made an unconverted touch to make the score at the end of the quarter Macdonald 12 B.C.S. 6.

Second Quarter — A Harris from Ibson pass went for a large gain and Harris carried it over for a converted touch to make the score at the end of the first half, Macdonald 19 B.C.S. 6.

Third Quarter — No score.

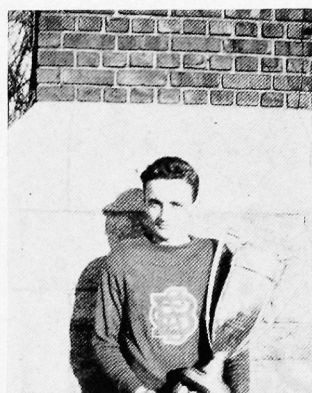

Fourth Quarter — On a short end run left by Harris again, Macdonald completed the scoring with an unconverted touch to make the final score, Macdonald 25, B.C.S. 6.

PLACE KICK
PRICE AND WALLACE

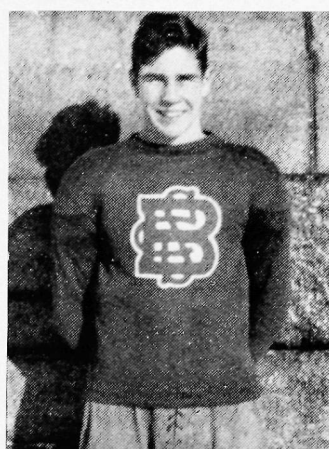

M. S. WALLACE
Winner of the Cleghorn Cup

Price—captain and centre half. Bill's game this year reached a standard of performance that had to be seen to be believed. A heady runner, a long-range or flat passer de luxe, an uncanny receiver, deadly tackler, with a toe phenomenally trained to stroke a placement or rocket a punt, he was an inspiration to his own team, an example to his opponents. It will be years, many years, before we have another captain, or player, of his stature. Bill, at seventeen, is a veteran of four years of senior rugby which for ability and sportsmanship will gladly stack against the record of any player in the game.

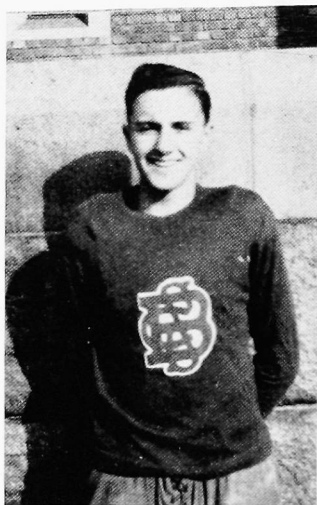

Wallace—quarterback. Second year. Mike's sure-handed catches, hard tackles and brilliant pass-reception (those hands again) were his mechanical assets. A trifle slow on signals, he was, perhaps, a better tactician than a strategist. Never visibly ruffled, he decided on a play, generally the correct one, and executed it with precision. Of course, he was a 60-minute man—our good uns' always are.

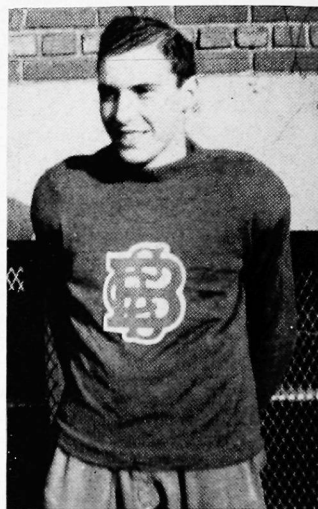

Neill—middle. Second year. Charlie was the outstanding man on our charging defense: he made most tackles behind the opponents' line. Defensively he was the best man on the forward wall.

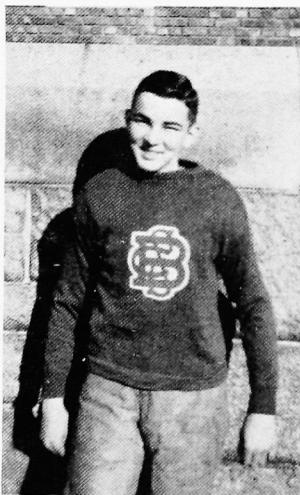

Satterthwaite I—flying wing. First year. As a secondary defense tackler, Pete backed the left side of the line with strong, hard tackles. Hurt, tired, or both, he never quit. Ran well, caught, on occasion, with uncanny success and, subbing for Price, punted and place-kicked well indeed.

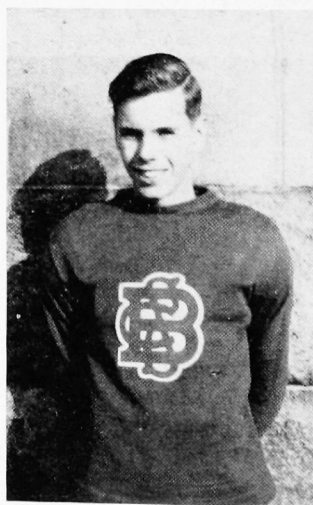

Gault—left half. First year. Teamed well with Wallace on the defense. Good hands, a fair tackler, strong if rather slow runner, he could throw long passes with accuracy.

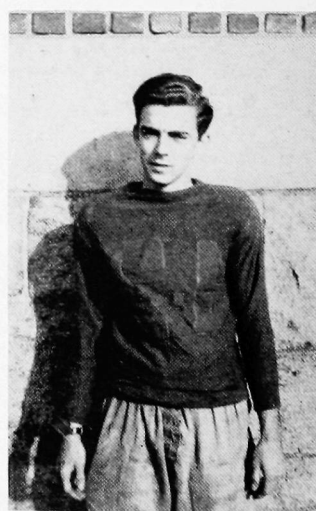

Foss—right half. First year. Doug was fast, a fair ball-carrier, though somewhat of an in-and-outer. When he was in form, few plays got through his wing.

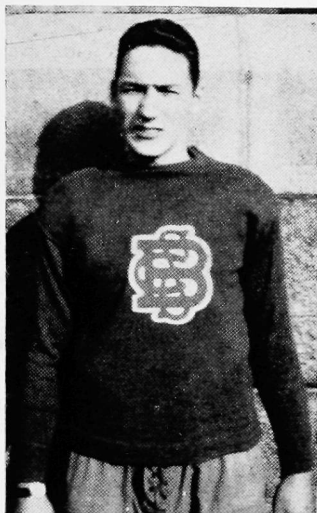

Satterthwaite II—First year. Bill's willingness to work, his sound tackling and aggressive charging defense won him his well-earned colours.

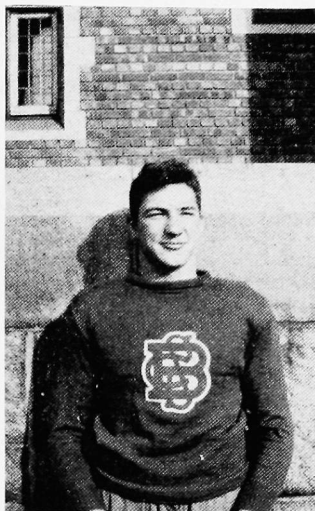

Mackenzie—end and half. First year. Alec's strongest department was his tackling. As a substitute back, he had to fill in several places, and did so, well.

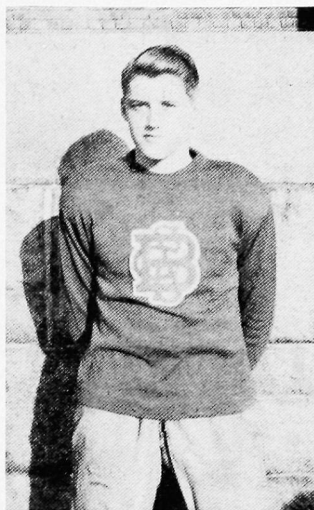

Graham—Sub back field.

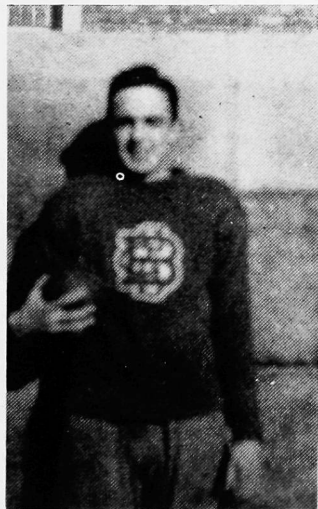

Arnold II—inside. First year. Bill was not showy, but was very effective, and strong, though not sufficiently low in his tackling. He got a carrying assignment only occasionally, but when he did, he went for distance.

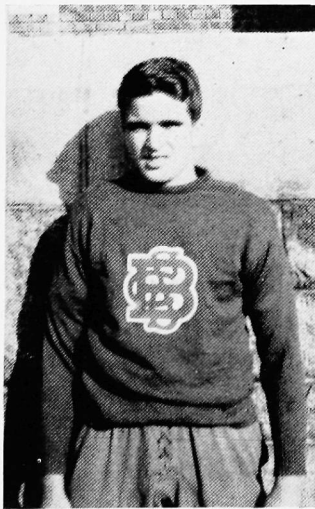

Arnold III—inside. First year colours. There were times, with the brothers playing side by side, when nothing could pass them. Jeff was sometimes mediocre, sometimes a strong, low-tackling defensive stalwart. Towards the end of the season, he ran a close second to Sewell as a ball-carrier.

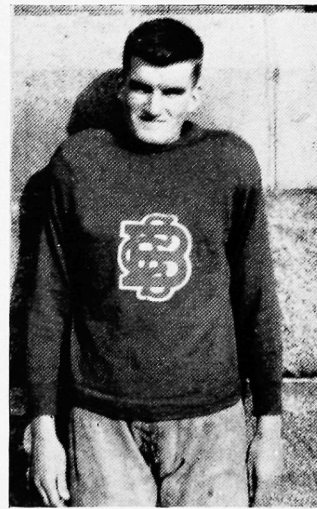

Stoker—snap. First year. Not one bad snap all season from Des' hands. Too impetuous on secondary defense, and a trifle slow, he missed tackles sometimes by not going low enough, but for hard work, he had few peers.

Fraser—left end. First year. Scott was a keen, hard worker, a fine man on the forend of passes, whose tackling was better in some games than in others.

Johnson—right end. First year. Best tackler on the wingline. Rather slow about getting down under kicks, he was sure when he got there. Defensively he played a very heady game, as was evident in one play when he brought down two successive ball-carriers.

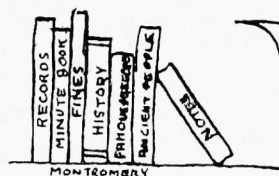

Sewell—middle. First year. For most of the season, Jim was the most effective ball-carrier on the wingline. Generally, too, he was a strong defensive man.

The motion was lost 4-6.

The standard of speaking this year equals last year's record and may excel it before the close. (Ed.)

SKIING AT B.C.S.

NEW BOYS

We are pleased to welcome the following new boys who came to the School in September: Berlyn, Bird, Donner, Findley, Glassford II, Goflin, Goodridge I, Goodridge II, Hart, Mather, Miller, Patterson, Popham, Rankin and Turnbull. They have all found their place in the life of the School, and we hope they are enjoying it as much as they seem to do.

We are also glad to welcome Mr. P. S. Howard who has come in place of Mr. Pay-sant, who left us in June to go to West Hill High School in Montreal. Mr. Howard is a graduate of King's College School, Windsor, N.S., where he has been teaching also for the last three years, and a B.A. of King's College, Halifax. We hope he will enjoy his stay among us.

THE CHOIR TRIP TO COATICOOK

Thirty of the choir boys were chosen to go to Coaticook for a church service on Sunday morning, November 19th. We left after breakfast and arrived there shortly before the service. When the service was over we were all asked out to dinner by various members of the congregation, to whom we wish to extend our sincere thanks for their kindness and hospitality. After dinner we gathered again at the church and came back to School by taxi. We all enjoyed the trip and wish to thank Mr. Page for making it possible. The following Prep boys went on the trip: Ashworth, Baird, Bird, Chapman, Grier, Jekill, Mather, Neil, Patterson, Scheib II, Setlakwe, Whitehead II.

ART AND HANDICRAFT

We are very glad to have Mrs. Jones with us again this year. Under her able guidance even the younger and less experienced boys are becoming quite skilled artists.

This term all forms have been making much the same things. Many drawings have been done, including some of Chinese lanterns, leaves and different kinds of flowers; but the main achievement of the term was that of making trucks and guns. Some of these were very queer contraptions which required a good deal of skill.

We are already looking forward to next term's classes in Art and Handicraft.

HALLOWE'EN PLAYS

As usual on Hallowe'en each dorm put on a play, all of which were very good. Among the best was the one put on by the youngest dorm, Dorm II, a play called "The Jester's Revenge", written by T. Grier and produced by J. Chapman. All the actors in this did very well. Dorm III's play was named "The Spy Nest", written by A. Mather and produced by W. Badger. This story was about oil sabotage and proved to be very exciting. In the intervals between the plays Mr. Page entertained the boys by doing tricks that no one was able to find out. Dorm I's play was entitled "Count von Dracula", written by R. Jekill and produced by P. Bird. This play, too, was exciting and the actors in it did very well. The last offering of the evening consisted of two skits put on by Remove Dorm; "The Fine Horse" and "Mr. Fox and Box". These were both well done and brought to a close a very entertaining evening.

THE WEINER ROAST

On Sunday, October the 23rd, Mrs. Grier very kindly invited the Prep to a weiner roast at the Plantation. We went down early in the afternoon and in a little while had a big fire blazing. We then started roasting weiners and, although many fell into the fire, everyone had his fill. After that there were apples, cookies, and cocoa for everyone who still could eat. When we had finished, we wandered off into the woods nearby and, after playing for an hour or so, came back to School, all still very full.

We wish to thank the Headmaster and Mrs. Grier for their kindness in asking us down and for the wonderful time that we had.

THE THANKSGIVING WEEK-END

As usual the Thanksgiving week-end was a most enjoyable one. On the Saturday many of the parents came down, and the boys were allowed to go out, both for dinner and supper. Those boys whose parents were unable to come were very kindly invited out by other parents, so that every boy in the Prep was out from dinner time on.

On Sunday morning the Chapel was filled to overflowing with parents and boys for the annual Thanksgiving Service which was taken this year by Brig. General Hepburn, Senior Chaplain to the Canadian Forces. After Chapel the boys again went out with their parents until bedtime in the evening.

The annual rugby game between the Old Boys and the First Team, which was played on Monday morning, was won by the Old Boys by a score of 12-11. This was followed by a very enjoyable luncheon, and this, again, by the Prize-giving at which the following Prep boys received prizes for good work in their classes during the previous year: Sheard, Stewart-Smith I, MacDougall, Milling (Old Boys), Ashworth, Cohen, Martin III, Jekill, Spafford and Parker.

SOCCER

Although it was not able to win the Wanstall Cup given for Inter-Scholastic competition in soccer, our team, while lacking in size, was not lacking in team spirit.

After two games with the old Prep boys of last year in which the scores ended 2-1 and 1-1, we began our regular schedule with a game against Stanstead. The game was played on the Prep campus and after a bitter struggle we won by a score of 1-0. Our goal was scored by Neil.

On the morning of Friday, Oct. 27th, the following boys left for Montreal where they were to play two games: Badger, Bird, Cohen, Baird, van Millingen, Monier-Williams, Setlakwe, Rankin, Neil, Martin III, Ashworth and Berlyn. On the Friday afternoon we played Lower Canada School and after a keenly fought game, neither side could claim a goal. On the Saturday morning we played a much improved team from Selwyn House School and were soundly beaten 3-0.

On Wednesday, November 1st, we went to Stanstead and repeated our former victory over them by the same score, 1-0. It was a great game, the only goal being scored by Cohen from a penalty kick.

On Saturday, November 4th, Selwyn House were our guests and although we fought doggedly to avenge the former defeat, Selwyn House beat us 2-1. We offer our congratulations to Selwyn House as worthy winners of the Wanstall Cup. Thus ended a season comparable to many others, but not so successful.

Glassford and Dawson have our sympathy. They would have been on the soccer team, but after the first game against Stanstead were forced by illness to miss the rest of the games. Our chances against Selwyn House were much lessened by their absence.

Second Crease boys who are playing with skill and enthusiasm deserve special mention. Among the pick are Findlay, Goodridge I, Goodridge II, Grier, Martin IV, Parker, Popham and Whitehead II.

SOCGER NINES

At the end of the regular season, furious battles took place in a league composed of Bears, Bisons, Buffaloes and Bulls. The result was in doubt until the last of the twelve games, when Ashworth's Bisons defeated Monier-William's Buffaloes by 2 to 1.

Another league followed and again the teams had the same captains, but different men. This time they played under the names of Baracudas, Mosquitos, Spitfires and Typhoons and again the games were packed with action. Once more it was left to the twelfth game to decide the winners, Cohen's Spitfires bringing down Bird's Mosquitoes by a score of 5 to 1.

D. W. ASHWORTH.

LISTENING TO HOCKEY MATCHES

Every Saturday night since hockey season opened Mr. Page has kindly asked the Remove Dorm down to his house to listen to part of the matches over the radio. Refreshments are served while we are listening to the game and are very much enjoyed by everyone. It is very nice of Mr. and Mrs. Page to have us down on Saturday nights and I am sure all the Remove boys are very thankful to them both.

D. BAIRD

THE CHECKER TOURNAMENT

One rainy afternoon when there was nothing to do, Mr. Page decided we should have a checker tournament. The checker experts, of course, were very excited, and the prize that was offered encouraged the others to try their luck. There were some very exciting games and many of the winners just managed to eke out narrow wins.

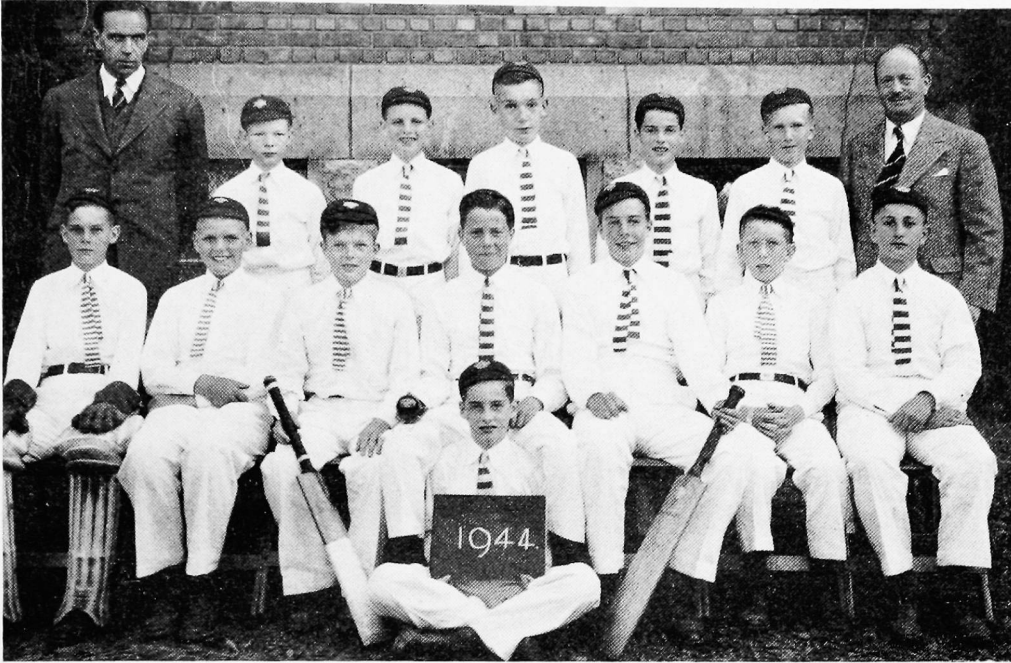

In the final game Cohen just managed to beat Scheib II. T. Parker came a very close third.

P.C.

THE PING PONG TOURNAMENT

Only one Ping Pong tournament was held this term and it was arranged a bit differently from previous years in that it was not played on any single day but was carried over throughout an entire week. Some very good Ping Pong was played by the 16 entrants, and even some of the younger boys showed quite surprising ability. All the games were very close, but in the end Cohen won by defeating Ashworth in the finals.

THE MOVIES

Every Saturday night we have movies in the Prep. They are all educational and are usually very good. Most of them are geographical, showing different parts of the world and telling us about them.

On Sunday nights the whole School has movies in the gym. Usually there are a couple of shorts, followed by the main picture. Some of the movies we have had are: "The Last of the Mohicans", "Frontier Scout", "The Count of Monte Cristo", "Wrecker Crew", "Look Who's Laughing", and "A Million Years B.C.". They were all very good, and we were very glad to have them.

THE LIBRARY

So far this year the library has progressed greatly. Through the kindness of Mrs. Boswell a number of most interesting books have been added to our shelves. We also wish to thank Mrs. E. G. Finley for giving us an excellent life of Drake, entitled "The Golden Hind"; and to thank the following boys, also, for welcome gifts of books: Gilmour, Baird and Mather. All the books given have been a great pleasure to those who have read them.

The library has this year been under the supervision of Mr. McMann, assisted by D. Ashworth and J. Calder. We are looking forward to a good future. J. W. CALDER

TRAIL WORK

After a long soccer season the Prep sickle and hatchet brigade is now working again on the trails under the leadership of various boys in Remove. As the work this year consists only in the cutting away of underbrush the sicklers are having the greater part of the work. Thus far it is progressing satisfactorily so that the trails should be in good shape when the ski-ing season opens.

D. MONIER-WILLIAMS

DEDICATION TO AN OLD BOY

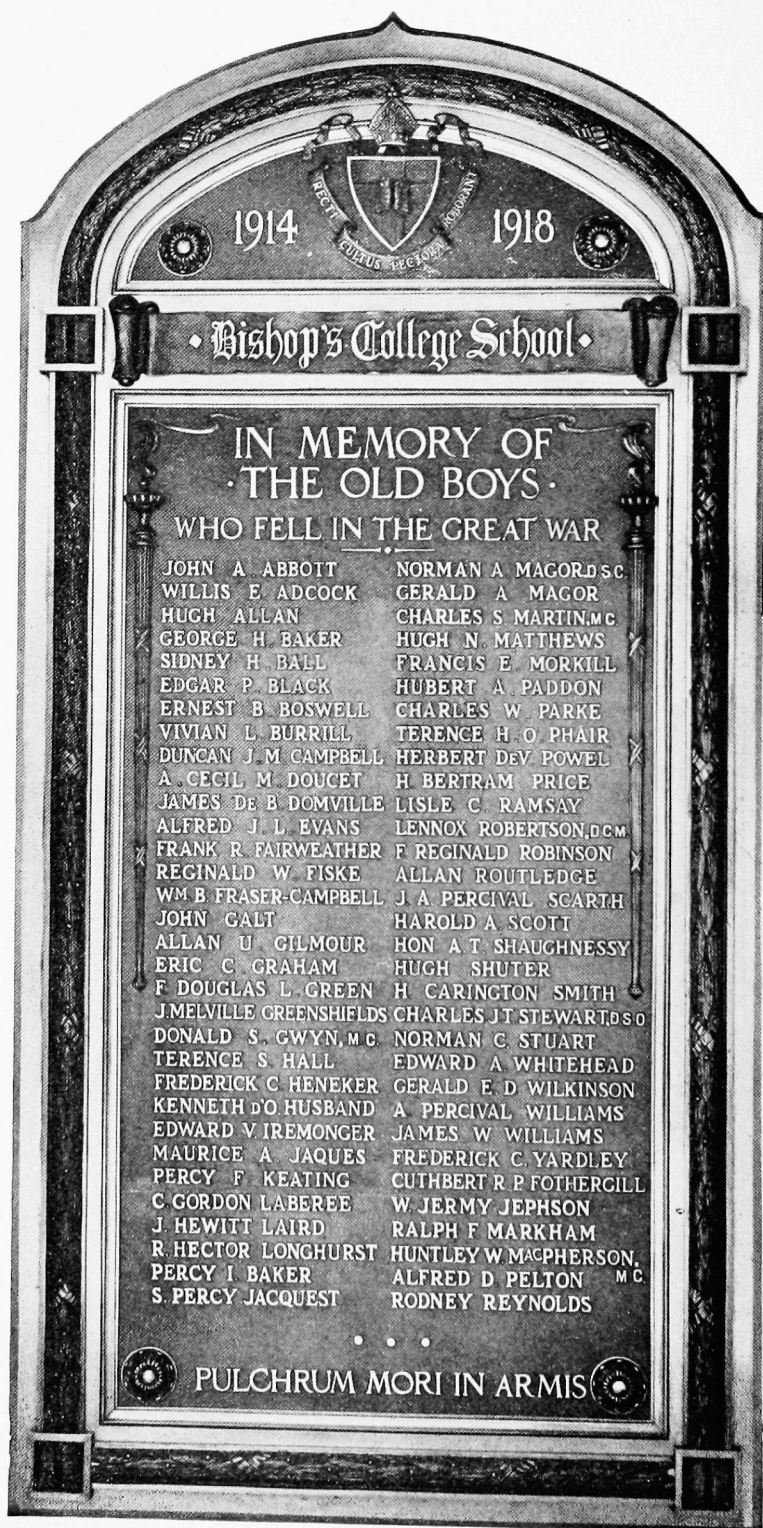

His life began when he went to school,
A school with a well-known name;
He was good on the field, did well in his work,
And he brought the school great fame.

His work and his games, whatever he did,
He always did it well.
Who'd ever have thought — in a few years time
Of the battle in which he fell!

No matter his name or what he did,
Always he played the game.
He did it not for his own renown,
But for this: His own School's name.

He died for his land, for its cause he fell,
For the glory of its name,
For his flag, his King, and his own dear land,
He fought for its greater fame.

TWO LOCAL MEN IN WOLF SQUADRON FETED BEFORE LEAVING NORMANDY

Two Montrealers who had both served with the famous Wolf Squadron, R.C.A.F., for one tour of operations and their former squadron leader were given a rousing farewell party by all the wings under Group-Capt. W. R. MacBrien, of Ottawa, before they left Normandy for non-operational jobs in England, according to an R.C.A.F. release from France.

They were Flt. Lt. H. R. "Hart" Finley of 3940 Cote des Neiges Road, Flt. Lt. Peter Logan, of Montreal, whose address was not listed, and Wing-Commander R. A. Buckham, D.F.C. and U.S.D.F.C., of Vancouver.

As a flight commander in the Wolf Squadron, 22-year-old Flt. Lt. Hart Finley had a long spell of operational duty. When he first arrived in England he flew with an R.A.F. Typhoon squadron. Later he joined the R.C.A.F. City of Oshawa Spitfire Squadron and in September, 1943, was posted to the Wolf Squadron. He destroyed two enemy aircraft last winter in a period when fighter pilots had to hunt even to catch a glimpse of the Hun.

Before leaving Normandy, Finley and Logan took a trip up to the front line to see how the soldiers, for whom they had been helping provide air cover, were getting along. They both came back full of admiration for the job the men in khaki were doing.

They went by jeep and at one point they asked a soldier where they were. The soldier replied: "If you go 300 yards farther you'll be between the lines." They turned back.

Later Finley had a rifle in a Bren carrier taking supplies to the most forward troops. His army guide left him alone in the carrier for three quarters of an hour in a deserted village while he went the last 1000 yards on foot. "Scaredest I've ever been in my life," Finley said when he got back.

Twenty-two-year-old Flt. Lt. Finley is the son of Mrs. M. Ross Finley, Glen-eagles Apartments, Cote des Neiges Road. He was educated at Bishop's College School and McGill University prior to enlisting. He won his wings at Summerside, P.E.I., in April, 1941, and was an instructor there and at Uplands before going overseas.

He got his first plane, an ME-109, on the same day that Beurling got his 31st kill. They were both flying with the same element of the Wolf Squadron.

TREK ACROSS MINEFIELD IS LED BY MONTREALERS (EGAN CHAMBERS, B.C.S. 1936-39)

With the Canadian Corps on the Adriatic, October 1.—This is the story of how Lt. Egan E. Chambers of Montreal led a company of "Princess Pat's" commanded by Major Colin McDougal, also of Montreal, across one of the densest German minefields ever laid—a quarter mile expanse of rubble sown with Teller mines, shoe mines, "S" mines, boobytraps and trip wires that protected the approach to the vitally important Italian town of Osteria Nuova, key point in the Gothic Line defences. It is the story also of the taking of Osteria Nuova by the men who crossed the minefield with support provided by companies under Capt. R. G. M. Gammell, Montreal, and an unnamed Montreal major who directed his men from the back of a Churchill tank.

The minefield was an integral part of the Gothic Line's outer defences. It protected the approaches from the Foglia river to the line itself and was sown with typical Teutonic thoroughness, some of the mines even having special trip devices which set them off when any of the accepted techniques for de-fusing were applied.

It took twenty-five minutes for the company to pick its way carefully through that expanse of death with each man stepping carefully in the steps of the man ahead and Lt. Chambers in the lead. Of the entire company however only two men were lost. Two men who stepped out of line.

The company took Osteria Nuova without great difficulty after the perilous trip, despite the fact that they were up against crack paratroops of the German army. The enemy were so close that Maj. McDougal tells of waking next morning in a slit trench to see a paratrooper poised above him with a potato-masher in hand. Grabbing his tommy-gun he let the Nazi have a burst and although he missed his target the German did not come back for more. McDougal and his men were much happier when the hills above the town were taken by Capt. Gammell of Montreal and the unknown Montreal major in the Churchill tank.

F/O 'HAP' MORELAND IS GLAD TO BE HOME

Montreal Flying Officer goes through many odd experiences in India.

HAS MANY ADVENTURES

He finds a lot of hardships but also compensations
in the Land of Mystery

How would you like to be in a virtual Shangra-la where you could walk into a store and at your leisure buy a case of imported scotch (any brand whatsoever your heart may desire) for the sum of twenty bucks? On the other hand how would you enjoy being in a land where people at 25 looked 70; where reference to a native as a "pig" or a "sewer" would result in certain death; where people died by the hundreds yet there was plenty of food, and where some of the everyday common-place customs would make a stevedore's stomach turn? Such was India.

F/O J. W. Hap Moreland of Montreal who has just returned from there had some very interesting experiences to relate last night. Glad to be back in Canada and in a clean and orderly room at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel he spoke of India where he has been for almost two years. Hap's adventures were not all with regret. On one occasion his plane was forced down in a valley in Burma and for six days he and the members of his crew worked feverishly to strip the plane of everything that meant excessive weight.

"We even had to drain 900 gallons of gas out of the tanks, to say nothing of our armament. We had that ship stripped completely and were finally able to take off again."

The native Burmese were apparently very kind to Hap and his crew, offering them assistance whenever they could. This was when he was stationed in the Ceylon jungle on coastal command.

"The food," said Hap "was not so hot at the station as there was an overabundance of bully beef, but you could get a very good meal in places like Colombo, and European dishes too."

Explaining the starvation in Bengal, Hap was of the opinion that there was no necessity for anyone having gone without food there. "There was an acute shortage of rice all right, but there was plenty of meat and fish. The trouble was that the natives have been brought up to eat rice and rice alone, refusing to eat anything else, even on the verge of starvation." The caste system there was a great source of bewilderment to Hap. "Take for instance those who have been professional beggars for generations, they even deform their children purposely to make them monstrosities so they can carry on as authentic looking cripples."

"In Delhi," he added, the beer situation was pretty bad, and when I was stationed there after being in Ceylon, we were only allowed three bottles per month, and goodness knows, we needed more than 3 pints in that hot climate. The liquor situation was a lot better at the beginning. For 60 rubles (about $20) you could buy a case of all the imported scotch you wanted, but the stocks were rapidly dwindling when I left and the prices had soared from that figure."

Hap, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moreland of Montreal, joined the R.C.A.F. in 1941 after being educated at Bishop's College School. He was attached to the R.A.F. in India, and is back in Canada again to take up instruction duties on the West Coast. At 24 he is none the worse for wear.

Montreal Star, Nov. 8th—

SURPRISE FOR HUN AND H. Q.

MONTREALER'S PRIVATE INVASION CAPTURES 250 NAZI PRISONERS

To a young Montrealer, Major Dick Porteous, goes the credit for carrying out an impromptu but successful invasion of North Beveland Island and taking 250 prisoners. With a small force, Major Porteous attacked the island and carried out the invasion and then notified his headquarters what he had done. Since headquarters had given the Montreal officer no instructions other than to stay on the South Beveland Island, this came as a bit of a shock, but it was a pleasant shock.

The details of the action are disclosed in dispatches from the Canadian Press war correspondent Ross Munro and Lionel S. B. Shapiro, Bell Syndicate war correspondent and other newsmen at the front.

Major Porteous was in command of a Canadian reconnaissance force and had been given the job of clearing out the north portion of South Beveland island. They finished that task and after sitting around for quite a while got somewhat impatient. The officer and his men knew that there was an impending assault on Walcheren island and sitting quietly by while this action took place was just a bit too much for the Canadians.

PLANS OWN INVASION

The upshot was that Major Porteous got the idea that it would be a sound plan to carry out an invasion of his own. He took a look at his maps and saw that it was only about 300 yards away from North Beveland island, at the closest point between the north and south islands. But he had no boats and no rafts so without permission he "borrowed" a few rowboats and a couple of abandoned Nazi barges. Arming his men with Sten guns, he set off across the channel.

When the little party arrived at the North Island, they found themselves up against some pretty stiff opposition from the Nazis there, but they quickly subdued them and headed inland.

REPORTS TO HEADQUARTERS

As the bridgehead they had made widened, Major Porteous and his men managed to clean out the German communications and when they had taken 250 prisoners and could find no more close at hand, it was decided to make a wireless report to headquarters.

Today it is announced that all Germans have gone from North Beveland.

Major Porteous sent off the report to his divisional commander and that gentleman got the shock of his life. The last word he had had from Major Porteous was that they were on South Beveland island. No other orders had been given, but when the O.C. found out that the "invasion" had been a complete success, his worries quickly faded. The divisional commander then notified headquarters who were just as surprised as he was and expressed a curiosity as to what had caused Major Porteous to carry out the plan. Asked this, the Montrealer said that when he had been ordered to carry out the reconnaissance, no one had told him where to stop.

The result of the impromptu invasion is that Major Porteous, his men, divisional command and headquarters are all very happy about the whole thing.

JOINED IN 1937

Major Porteous, 27, joined the Victoria Rifles as a provisional lieutenant. In August, 1939, a month before the war with Germany broke out, he was placed on canal guard duty with the Internal Security Force.

At the start of the war, he transferred to the Black Watch and in 1941 went overseas as a reinforcement officer for the Highland regiment. A short time later he was transferred to a reconnaissance unit and was promoted to the rank of captain. Still later, he was given a post with a reinforcement unit and was granted his majority.

Shortly before the invasion of France he was posted back to his reconnaissance unit with which he went to France on D-Day. He has been in France since the invasion.

Major Porteous who was employed by the Northern Electric Company, Limited, before the war, is the son of Lt.Col. and Mrs. C. F. C. Porteous, of 1374 Sherbrooke Street West. A brother, Lieut. Conrad Porteous, is serving with a tank brigade overseas.

SGT. WILLIAM MARKLAND MOLSON, 22, the Black Watch (R.H.R.) of Canada, was wounded in France on September 9. He is the son of Maj. John H. Molson and Mrs. Molson, 634 Clarke Avenue, Westmount. Sgt. Molson resigned his commission with the 2nd Reserve Battalion of the Black Watch in June 1941 to proceed overseas with the ranks of the 1st Battalion. He experienced the heavy fighting around Caen in July of this year and was shell shocked and admitted to a hospital in France. Sgt. Molson recovered and was sent back to his unit only to be wounded on the 9th of the month. He received his education at Bishop's College School and enlisted upon leaving. Sgt. Molson has one sister, LAW Mary Molson, R.C.A.F., W.D., at present stationed in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.

MAJOR BRIAN IRVINE MCGREEVY (1919-1926), Royal Rifles of Canada, returned in November, 1944, from being attached for eight months to the American Army in the Central and S. W. Pacific areas. He attended training establishments in the Hawaiian Islands, and took part in operations in the Marianas, New Guinea, The Schouten Islands and the Moluccas.

WHAT EVERY BOY

SHOULD KNOW . . .

"The boy who thinks a dollar is not worth saving becomes a man who thinks a hundred dollars is not worth saving, and he usually ends where he began—that is, with nothing."
Thus spoke a successful financier to a group of young men.

Get the habit of saving now, no matter how small the amount. Your account, whatever its size, will be welcome at the Bank of Montreal.

Please Remember Gentlemen...

It will pay you to acquire thrifty habits while you are at school. Good practice is to buy one or more War Savings Stamps with every spare quarter you can find. Canada needs the money now to win the war. You can use it later.

You can buy War Savings Stamps or Certificates over the counter at any branch of this bank.

Your will read it again

If it is over a year old it may fail to do justice to those you wish to benefit or help. So many things can happen to make your Will quite ineffective; fluctuating values, death, transfer of property, etc. Better re-read it quite carefully. Have your Lawyer or Notary revise it, naming us Executor and Trustee and be assured that your wishes will be carried out efficiently and faithfully.

FILMO

*Makes Your Best Movies
Better . . .*

With a Filmo Projector, any film puts its best foot forward, because of:

1. Uniformly brilliant illumination.
2. Rock-steady pictures, with no flicker, no side weave.
3. Precision manufacture, cooling and safety features protect your film.

When Filmo Projectors are released from war service, see how much better Filmo will show your movies.
